When
Monday, 31st October, 2016
1pm to 5pm

Where
Medical Foundation Building (K25), 92-94 Parramatta Rd,
University of Sydney

More information
christopher.mayes@sydney.edu.au
jane.h.williams@sydney.edu.au

Register
Register via the Eventbrite page

Speakers and themes
This symposium brings together a multi-disciplinary group of scholars to explore the ethical and policy implications of financial and non-financial conflicts of interest in medicine and public health. The four sessions will address conceptual and practical implications of conflicts of interest from clinical, policy, scientific and academic perspectives.

• Conflict of Interest in the Assisted Reproduction Technology Industry – Ms Jane Williams
• Can we use data to measure and mitigate the clinical implications of competing interests? – Dr. Adam Dunn
• "The perfect friend": How sales-reps form invisible and indispensable relationships with nurses – Dr. Quinn Grundy
• Reps in the Ranks - Conflicts of Interest in Surgical Innovation – Dr. Jane Johnson & Dr. Katrina Hutchinson

Respondents include: Professor Wendy Rogers, Professor Lisa Bero, and Dr. Wendy Lipworth.

Co-hosted by the Centre for Values, Ethics and the Law in Medicine (University of Sydney), Macquarie University Research Centre for Agency, Values and Ethics, and the Bias and Research Integrity research node (University of Sydney).