We publish books and create a platform for diverse feminist authors with transformative visions for the world.

Everyone recognizes themselves in a book.

Dominant narratives will be dismantled.

People are exposed to new ideas that broaden their perspectives on feminism(s).

They share a Feminist Press book with new readers.

Communities are created.

People are inspired to nurture empathy, think critically, take action, and build movements.