HOW ST. NINA BROKE INTO OUR LIVES

JOIN US FOR DINNER, WINE, AND CONVERSATION AS WE ENJOY MEANINGFUL EUMENICAL DIALOGUE SPONSORED BY THE CATHOLIC-ORTODOX INITIATIVE.

A third-century slave girl brought the gospel to the queen of Georgia, then the king, and then the entire nation. That’s why St. Nina is called “Equal to the Apostles.” Fifteen hundred years later, she boldly broke into a group of women at a church in Baltimore, Maryland, who had never heard her name. A saint to churches East and West, her intriguing story deserves to be better known.

Frederica Mathewes-Green is the author of over a dozen books, numerous articles in print and online, and a popular speaker. She writes movie reviews and commentary for National Review Online and other articles for a wide range of publications, including Christianity Today, Books & Culture, and First Things. In addition to her books and other writing, Frederica speaks at colleges, conventions, and churches across the country.
