HEALTH TIP OF THE WEEK

Take Fitness Baby Steps

One of the best ways to ease back into a regular fitness program is to "start small." Set small, realistic goals allowing you the opportunity to "fit" exercise into your daily schedule, as well as increase your confidence as you accomplish small measurable goals.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

JERRY SKIFSTAD

SEND International

Working in the Mobilization Department to coordinate overseas short-term teams

PRAISE:

- For the great participation at the SEND Youth Ministry Summit. Several new mission opportunities have opened for us to explore.
- That the LORD is raising up younger and older people with hearts of compassion for spreading the Gospel to those who have never heard, especially in difficult areas of the world.
- My daughter, Renee, and her husband, Mike, are expecting their first child in September! Pray for a healthy pregnancy and birth.
- I'm extremely grateful to YOU and the LORD for your continual prayer and financial support. Thank you so much!

PRAY:

- That the LORD would bring other people to partner with me financially and through prayer. I am $1180 short in monthly support. Ministry is currently suspended until my ministry is fully-funded.
- That there will be 6-8 college-age students who will attend SEND International Conference "Explorer Track" to see if God may be calling to cross-cultural missions somewhere overseas.
- For Ahmad, a Muslim college student I'm working with, that the LORD would open the eyes of his heart and become a devoted follower of Jesus. Pray the same also for Mohammad, Hussain and Seraj.
- For Chris, a young man I'm discipling, that he will continue to grow deeper in his love and affection for the LORD. Pray that the LORD would help him guard his heart, and protect him from the attacks of the evil one.
