

Assistant or Associate Professor of Theology

The Bible and Theology Department of Toccoa Falls College invites applications for a full-time faculty position in Theology beginning August 1, 2017. Rank and salary are open, depending on the candidate's qualifications and experience. The department seeks someone to teach introductory and elective courses in theology. The ability to teach courses in church history, spiritual formation, or Latin is also desirable. Though not required, preference will be given to persons who have training in historical theology and demonstrate familiarity with the beliefs and practices of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

Qualified candidates for the position will have completed a Ph.D. or equivalent in theology from an accredited institution at the time of appointment (strong ABD candidates will be considered); possess teaching experience or strong promise of excellence in the classroom; and have demonstrated ability in or potential for scholarship. Candidates must be committed to an evangelical Christian faith and be devoted to the Christ-centered higher educational mission of the College.

Applicants should first download the provided pre-Application form at www.tfc.edu/faculty-positions. This will direct candidates to submit (1) a cover letter describing interest, qualifications, and basic philosophy of teaching; (2) a personal faith narrative that interacts with TFC's statement of faith; (3) current curriculum vitae; and (4) unofficial graduate transcripts. Application materials may be submitted via email attachment to cvena@tfc.edu. If mailed, all materials should be sent together in a single large envelope. Incomplete applications will not be processed. The application package should be addressed to: Dr. Christopher Vena, Chair, Bible and Theology Department, Toccoa Falls College, MSC778, Toccoa Falls, GA 30598. All inquiries will remain confidential.

Applications are due by October 15. As an equal opportunity employer, TFC strongly encourages women and minorities to apply.
