“Economics has helped me to recognize how decisions impact every person’s financial stability and it is more evident now than ever. Every decision that I or a consumer makes will set off an economic chain reaction.”

Alexis Mondragon, Antonito High School South Conejos District

TEACHER RESULTS

97% of teachers said the EconLitCo class made them a more effective teacher

97% of teachers said, based on their class experience with EconLitCo, they would enroll in another class
"Whether a child I teach grows up to be a doctor, architect, chef, office manager, or grocery store clerk, they are each going to have financial resources to manage. I strive to provide relevant, engaging lessons on how money works and how to control your money, not to be controlled by it.”

- Charles Kastens, Mission Viejo Elementary School, Aurora
