To invest is to use money to gain profit; investing is the process of putting money some place with the intention of making financial gain. Investment possibilities include stocks, bonds, mutual funds, real estate and other financial instruments or ventures.