Welcome

I have great pleasure in introducing you to our dynamic, positive and aspiring learning community, of which this website is just one part. My colleagues and I are very proud of our school. This is a highly motivated, hardworking school, totally committed to providing an excellent platform for learning.

The warm and happy atmosphere which pervades our school is key to our success, alongside the quality of relationships and the high levels of care which exist between all members of the school community.

We want to give our children a thirst for learning that continues with them throughout their future school experiences and lives. An essential ingredient for this to happen is collaboration. We view education as a joint venture, involving everyone – children, families, staff, governors and the wider community.

Home and school work closely together to provide a safe and secure environment in which children grow in confidence and independence. From this foundation children are able to acquire respect for themselves, others and the environment; to use their powers of reasoning and imagination to discover, analyse, innovate, solve problems and to express their ideas confidently and to develop an enjoyment and life-long love of learning. By working together we will ensure that we meet our aim that everyone involved with William Harding School will be 'Empowered, Involved and Enlightened'.

I hope that you find the information on our website helpful and informative. As it can only give you a small taste of what our school has to offer, I would encourage you to visit our school, speak to staff, meet our pupils and see the school in action. I would be delighted to answer any questions you might have and would welcome the opportunity to show you around.
