“Affordable housing” means that a household spends 30 percent or less of their monthly income on housing expenses. More than half of Jubilee families earn less than $20,000 per year, meaning that ‘affordable’ for them...
Families that own a LEED certified home save an average of $1,600 annually on their utility bill.

28 New Single-Family Owner-Occupied Homes

24 Duplex Apartments for Low-Income Seniors

10 Through a recent pilot program existing homeowners received vital home repairs to improve quality of life.

Last Updated January 2020

Changes in Housing and Empty Lots (By Percentage)

- Increase in homeownership rates
- Decrease in renter rates
- Decrease in vacant lots

Jubilee founded in 1997

Families that own a LEED certified home save an average of $1,600 annually on their utility bill.