

Patricia Moore, CEO and co-founder of SentrumGlobalTrade, a division of Sentrum International Corporation a U.S. consulting firm with 27 years of experience in the field of global trade and business development.

Patricia is an international businesswoman, and consultant grew up in Bogota, Colombia and as a diplomat, represented her country in Norway and Iceland, before moving to the United States in 1991.

The first International Business Summit (IBS) was launched in 2008 as a result of Patricia's work as a consultant to the group of Latin American Consuls in North Texas. This strategic program - produce and organize by Patricia - aims to strengthen trade and prosperity between both the Latin American countries bearing Consular representation in the region and the rest of the world using Dallas Fort Worth as the platform to move sustainable relationships forward. The participating countries are continuously changing, but the model remains consistent. On this the auspicious occasion of its tenth anniversary, the IBS - Dallas Fort Worth: Bridging Latin America- Asia Trade, can proudly say that DFW International Airport trade catchment alone has more than doubled the monetary value of the Pacific Alliance founding and associate members and the IBS integration has added its grain of sand.

Patricia acts as the Vice President of Business Development - Latin America for US Freedom Capital (USFC) a US Citizen and Immigration Office designated Regional Center with base in Addison, Texas.

Ms. Moore is also a guest speaker to the Departments of Accounting, Economics, and Finance and the Department of History and Political Science of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor.

Mrs. Moore is the Latin American Mission Consultant for the AA Latin Diversity Network. Before this position, she served as the Business and Economic Editor for American Airlines NEXOS Magazine from 2008 until December 2014. Patricia represented the magazine on international assignments in Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Panama, Peru, and in the United States. She was also Nexos representative to The World Economic Forum on Latin America.

As a mentor guest of the Office of Citizen Exchanges, US Department of State, she visited Peru to take part in the final stage of the project "Creating Economic Growth to Fight Poverty and Strengthen Democracy: A Project for Young Peruvian Business Leaders."

Patricia who is an Economist and a Certified Global Business Professional on International Trade has received several Awards for her accomplishments in Dallas:

- Immigrant Journey Award in the Professional Excellence Category, presented by Cowles & Thompson, P.C. June 12, 2015
- Spirit of Texas Small Business Award 2009, Esperanza "Hope" Andrade, the Secretary of State of Texas.
- Minority Enterprise Development Week 2009, the U.S. Department of Commerce, in recognition of valuable contributions to the Minority Business Community, August 4, 2009
- Special Recognition, Laura Miller, mayor of the City of Dallas for bringing positive acclaim to the city of Dallas and creating the First International Book Fair in July, 2006.

Global Events Organized:

- First Dallas International Book Fair - with Central de Dallas con el J. Erik Jonsson Library (2006)
- Legacy of Spain for the Dallas Convention and Visitors Bureau (2007)
- International Business Summit: Doing Business in Latin America with GRULA and the Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (2008)
- A World of Wisdom from Women Worldwide - U.S. Small Business Administration (2009 y 2010)
- On Multi-Latin and Global Latin Business Enterprises - AA and US Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Annual Summit in Miami (2011)
- Deal Day - Banks and Lenders - Small Business Administration (2011-2012-2013)
- Outbound Mission to Panama - Tri-County Regional Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, 2013
- Outbound Mission to Bogota - Embassy of Colombia (2013)
- Latin America Business Summit The Pacific Alliance - An Imperative Collaboration for Economic Development, 2014
- Investor Visa EB-5 Program - Bogota, Sao Paulo. Quarterly Events (2014-2015)
- International Business Summit Dallas Fort Worth: The New Crossroads for Latin America - Asia Trade, 2016

Patricia Moore Contact Information | Mobile: 972-948-9766 | p.moore@sentrumglobaltrade.com |

www.SentrumGlobalTrade.com