

TEE TIMES!

Kind of Desperate for News!

Your Tee Times! editors are on the verge of having to make up some news. We know most, if not all of you, lead very exciting lives and just wish that you would share a bit more with us. As an example, just last night, Editor Sandy sent fellow editor Chris a great mac and cheese recipe for her to try in her Instant Pot. We doubt that life gets much more exciting and newsworthy than this. Knowing you are all curious about the outcome of the mac and cheese, we have to leave you hanging until the next Tee Times! edition. Who doesn't love a cliff hanger?

A Public Service Announcement

It has been reported that a single fox is back on the golf course. It looks skinny and sickly so if you see it, please be cautious of it.

Hip Hip Hooray!

Sandy Terry, the chair of the Singles Matches, is reporting that the first round is done! Yeah! We all know Sandy likes everything to go along smoothly so don't delay in getting your next game in. The most important thing to remember is to have some fun while playing them.

Important Dates to Remember

July 4 - Independence Day (Low Net)
July 11 - Membership meeting
July 28 - Guest Day (see below)
Aug 19, 20 - Club Champion Weekend

"I used to play golf. I wanted to be a better player, but after a while I realized I'd always stink. And that's when I really started to enjoy the game."

~ Don Rickles

Guest Day Theme Announced!

Be curious no more....the theme for Guest Day is Mad Hatters! Chairs Colleen Halpine and Christie Healy are hard at work to make this a super fun-filled event. One thing we're certain about is that the sun will shine, we'll all bring our smiles and of course, our "A" games. One other thing to bring....a guest or two or three!

It might be a good idea to start hunting around for some snazzy hat...the kind you might wear to an English wedding or a fancy tea of some sort. Just make sure it's tacked down good and tight so it doesn't get in the way of your swing or block your one good eye when putting. From our limited experience those flowers and veils can be such a pain sometime.

Another “soldier” takes a hit. Many big old trees on the course have taken a beating in the past couple of years. We often curse their existence when our ball disproves the “trees are 90% air” theory, but they add such beauty to our Como Golf Course. Let’s hope this one recovers.

Dang. We missed a chance to get a photo of the “scorched earth” before all this mulch was put down last week along the pond on #12. It went from looking like dead weeds to looking like an iron ore mine. What will be next? Who knows? Let’s hope for some pretty wild flowers or planting of some sort. We’re always hopeful.

Our deepest sympathies to Bertsie Rannenberg on the passing of her mom. We can only imagine what a great mom she was to raise such a fine daughter as Bertsie. Our hearts go out to you.

“The trouble that most of us find with the modern matched set of clubs is that they don’t really seem to know any more about the game than the old ones did.”

Robert Browning, poet and playwright

A Hot Time on the Old Golf Course

Last year at the Women’s Opener (one-day four-ball event) those attending the like event with the old organization wore more layers than swinging should have allowed. This year the day of the event was cold and rainy so it was rescheduled for June 10. And wouldn’t you know, that day it hit 100 degrees!

Those who “beat the heat”: Wendy Lane, Pam Fitch, Amy Winkel, Kathy Zieman, Colleen Halpine and Ruthie Pallow.

A Winning Twosome!

Ruthie Pallow and Dee Fitch (former Como member) took first place in the 3rd flight at the Senior Women's Amateur Four-Ball Championship at Minnesota National. They had a two day total of 174! Way to go ladies.

Dee and Ruthie with their 1st place trophies. We think they would make great ice cream bowls.

Great photo taken by Ruthie Pallow.

Sandy Denault and Angie Guillaume taking in the Prince tribute at a Twins game. If it rained, it must have been purple.

Taking our Hats off to Marvel

We asked Marvel Jordan to tell us about her recent well deserved retirement and the fabulous award she received. This is what she said:

I recently retired from Health Start, a program of Westside Community Health Services. Health Start clinics have integrated medical, nutrition, mental health and health education services which are provided in St. Paul high school settings.

Very early in my career (over 40 years ago), I was involved in the creation and development of the first school based clinic in the country, at Mechanic Arts High School, which went on to be the model of integrated care for clinics all over the USA. At that time I was working in the Maternal and Infant Care program at St. Paul Ramsey Hospital (now Regions) and very interested in adolescent care.

I worked in school based clinics in St. Paul schools for the last 30 years of my career. My role was that of clinical social worker, providing therapy to adolescents in need.

There are now over 2,000 school based clinics and they continue to grow in number. I received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the National School Based Health Alliance, recognizing me for "my vision and journey that would engender an entire movement across the country".

Congratulations, Marvel! We're all so proud of you!

First Calcutta of the Season Draws Big Crowd!

Thanks Rae Cornelius for setting up the Calcutta event. Eighteen members were able to enjoy a nice Friday on our gorgeous Como course in six threesomes and have some fun. (By the way, threesomes are awesome. We wish we could do them every club day but then we would no doubt become spoiled rotten. We sure wouldn't want that to happen.)

Team Blue: Frankie Rooney, Konny Fitch, Sandy Denault. They were the big winners in the "color coordinated division." Actually, we didn't have that division but if we had, they certainly would have won.

2nd place team: Elaine Cownie, Ruthann Ryberg, Sandy Terry.

The big winners with a -23: Theresa Peterson, Pam Fitch, Ruthie Pallow. →

Team Bertsie Rannenberg, Jane Cacich, Marvel Jordan ↓

Team Chris Langer, Kathy Zieman, Susan Kimberly. →

Happily taking 3rd place honors was team: Colleen Halpine, Christie Healey, Rae Cornelius.
