DANCE

FRI MAR 1, 2024
SAT MAR 2, 2024
TOUHILL PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Bringing their “off-the-charts-energy” (The New Yorker) to the stage, Ailey II dancers return to St. Louis, where they had completely sold out the Touhill two months prior to their performance. This season, the renowned ensemble of rising stars will bring you to your feet with works by emerging and established choreographers. See why The New York Times says, “There’s nothing like an evening spent with Ailey II.”

Since its 1974 inception, the company has flourished into one of the most popular modern dance companies in the country. With internationally renowned performer and choreographer Francesca Harper at the helm as Ailey II’s Artistic Director, she brings fresh perspectives to Alvin Ailey’s legacy, while nurturing creative voices and propelling the company forward.

Whether performing classics or new works, dancing on stage or conducting masterclasses through its extensive community outreach programs, Ailey II never misses its mark. “Clearly the future is theirs.” (The New York Times)

“The dancers in Ailey II are spectacular beings.”
– The New York Times
“Drop gritty, contemporary New York and European choreographers into the fast-paced, freeway world of Los Angeles, sprinkle with energetic young talent, and you get the super-fast, super-sexy, super-expressive intensity of Bodytraffic.” – Dance View Times
The Midwest region’s most celebrated dance festival returns for the 16th year! Nationally touring professional companies from coast-to-coast flock to St. Louis to bestow their artistry. It’s an unmatched buffet of world-class dance offering something for everyone from modern and ballet to contemporary, flamenco and more, with a distinct, dynamic program each night.

“Arguably the best dance buffet in the Midwest.” – Chicago Tribune
