BIO

Marcelo Treviño • Music Composer/Producer

Marcelo Eugenio Trevino (born April 5, 1977), best known for teaming up with Mexico's leading and Grammy Nominated alternative rock band Panda as arranger and on tour keyboard player, is a Berklee College of Music Film Scoring and Songwriting graduate (2000, 2001).

He's produced, arranged and scored numerous projects for years, including his award-winning solo album 'Todo' (2005) and Panda's MTV Unplugged Album. Recently Marcelo scored the docu-drama Rebel Pope for National Geographic International, the soccer series Las Fieras del Futbol for National Geographic Latin America and the animated feature film Selección Canina for Animex.

Marcelo is the creator and composer of a new Children's/Baby music company called Once Upon a Note... which focuses on producing beautiful music related content for babies, toddlers and their parents/care takers. Marcelo is also founder of El Sol Music, an artist driven creative music production agency for advertising and media projects. El Sol Music has provided music for over 100 projects including international recognized brands like Telcel, Claro Video, P&G, Tyson and more.

Currently he is also working for Brian Carson (Max Steel/Mattel, Slugterra/Disney) as assistant composer and music editor.

Marcelo enjoys going to the movies, reading and talking about technology, he twits constantly (@marcelotrevino) and likes photography (@marcelotrevino Instagram). He's currently living and working in Vancouver Canada with his wife, her 3 1/2 yr old daughter Nina and their 1 1/2 year old baby girl Emma.
