Worshiping God, Loving and Serving Others, Sharing the Good News

October 2016

Pastor Sandra —Due to the current concerns which have escalated out of Charlotte, Bishop Leeland of the Western North Carolina Conference responds with this letter that I believe speaks to what we as Christians profess as truth:

It is Time to Break New Ground

A deadly police shooting in Charlotte, NC, of Keith Lamont Scott, has added to the narrative of death and violence reported daily throughout the nation. The news that this has happened in our community has shocked us. It is reported alongside an increasing numbness in which we are becoming apathetic to the horrible events that destroy lives and community. In an atmosphere of fear and anger we seem to be drifting into a disrespect and defiance of others which only contributes to an escalation of violence as witnessed last night when a peaceful protest turned violent. As social media shares videos of these events we quickly draw conclusions and make statements that are not necessarily helpful in resolving these frightful occurrences.

In light of this death and the destructive actions that have followed, Governor Pat McCrory declared a State of Emergency. In the midst of this increasing violence my thoughts are focused on the families who are grieving and impacted by these events; may they find mercy and understanding.

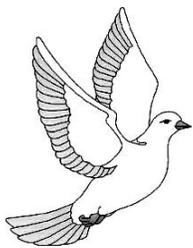

There will be many calls for prayer, which I know are already being lifted, and our prayers should lead to action. It is my prayer we might behave in such a way as to embrace Jesus' teaching, "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy...Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." To be a peacemaker at this moment will require patient and persistent efforts to embrace and work with those who may not share our same life experiences and beliefs. It will require deliberate and measured steps of building trust within each community.

The Church reminds us the way in which we live in community with others is a spiritual issue. The way we treat others is a spiritual issue. The way in which we respond to others is a spiritual issue. Within each of our respective communities, with all our differences, we are called to relate to our neighbors as our brothers and sister, the family of God. Jesus responded to the question, "Who is my neighbor?," by telling a story of violence and concluded by asking a question of his own, "Which of these was a neighbor to the one who fell into" violence? The answer was clear, it was the one who risked assisting the one who had been beaten and attacked. Action is required.

I invite each of our churches to pause during their worship services this Sunday in prayer for those who have been impacted most directly by these acts of violence. Pray for the peace of our community and for those who work to protect public safety. I would also invite our congregations to consider how we might be engaged in conversation with our community leaders to encourage, support, and build trust as we become partners and peacemakers. Finally, as we remain immersed in the acts of grace, I would ask United Methodists to form small discussion groups within our congregations and intentional conversations between communities of faith, particularly those of different racial, ethnic make-up than your own for the purpose of entering into conversation about how our involvement can be expressed in acts of mercy within our own communities right now.

The prophet Hosea (10:12) called upon the faithful people of God to live in a different way by saying, "Sow righteousness (justice), reap the fruit of unfailing love, and to prepare new ground; for it is time to seek the Lord." This is such a time. May we lead our communities to live in this "different way."

Grace and Peace,
Bishop Paul L. Leeland
Resident Bishop, Charlotte Area

Our Sympathy

We extend our love and sincere sympathy to the family of
- Julie Richardson

in the death of her brother, Billy Hash, on October 1.

Fifth Sunday Service

Our joint service for October 30 has been postponed until the next fifth Sunday, January 29.

We will have worship at our usual times on October 30 but the format will be different. Instead of a sermon, we will have a hymn-sing of your favorite songs. Come, join in as we " Make a joyful noise unto the LORD...[and]...come before his presence with singing." Psalm 100:1,2

Community Volunteers Needed

Meals on Wheels of Davidson County is looking for help to deliver meals throughout the county. Most volunteers deliver meals twice a month and can serve about 15 people per route. Currently they are needed for routes in Cotton Grove, Denton, Hasty, Noahtown, Pilgrim, Pilot, Southmont, Tyro, West Lexington, and Wallburg. Each route is about two hours long. Interested volunteers may contact Jacob Gordon at (336) 242.2948 or jacob.gordon@davidsoncountync.gov.

Charge Conference

Mt Olivet is hosting the Missional Network Charge Conference on Monday, November 7 at 7 PM.

To prepare for it, the Lay Leadership Committee will meet on Sunday, October 9, at 6 PM. The Finance Committee will meet on Sunday, October 16, at 4 PM.

E-mail Addresses

Many of the e-mail addresses in our new church directory have already changed, and we need your help to update them. If you would like to receive email from the church, please list your preferred e-mail address (and, of course, your name) in the pew pad over the next few Sundays or email them to smcraver@bellsouth.net.

Crisis Ministry Needs Our Help

This year marks the 14th annual Pennies from Heaven Fundraiser for the Crisis Ministry. Donations will help support an adult shelter (48 male beds in their dorm and 16 female beds), family shelter (7 families), food bank, and clothing bank.

We will collect donations at both worship services on October 16 and October 25. If you write a check, please make it out to Crisis Ministry of Davidson County.

Birth-a Gift of God

Congratulations to Mary Anne Craver and Ricky Hucks on the September 26 birth of their daughter, Edith Mae. She weighed 5 pounds 15.5 ounces and was 18 inches long. Her maternal grandparents are Mike and Charlene Craver.

The Women in Jesus' Past

Jewish women were influential in the life of Jesus, raising questions while developing lifestyles for future generations. Evidence of their role in ancient society has long been overlooked, ignored, and even denied as truth. This biblical study links women of the past to women of the future by means of the modern-day woman.

Please join us as we explore how the lives of these women continue to be influential in today's world each Sunday evening in the Bruce Sally Sunday School classroom (November 6—December 11) from 6—7:30 PM or each Wednesday (November 9—December 14) at 10:00 AM at the church parsonage.

Please bring your Bible and a notepad (You will want to take notes for future reference).

Looking Ahead: November 6

We will remember those of our church family who left us for the church triumphant this past year with a memorial service at both worship services on All Saints' Sunday, November 6. If you have a loved one who was a member of our church and passed away during 2016, please email their picture to info@mtolivetumc.net or give it to Pastor Sandra. Original photos will be returned.

Our veterans will also be honored that Sunday both at the services and at a reception in the fellowship hall following early service.

Thank You!

The Methodist Men would like to thank the ladies of the church who provided so many delicious desserts and all the volunteers who helped us with our Bar B Q Chicken Dinner. Without the support of the church, we could never undertake such a project. We had a great day and served 1000 meals.

Our profits from the dinner were a little over $4,000, and all the funds will be used for various mission projects. To show our appreciation, a donation of $500 has been made to the Greater Things Outreach Center in honor of our ladies and all the volunteers. We have also made a donation of $500 to the Pennies From Heaven campaign for the Crisis Ministry of Davidson County. Although we call this event the Methodist Men's Bar B Q Chicken Dinner, it is really a church event sponsored by the Methodist Men, and we again want to thank the church for your support!

We averaged 103 in Sunday School and 131 in worship service.

Youth Fund	1,268.00
Scholarship Fund	50.00
CD Interest	169.55
Total Offering	$14,476.34

Our total regular offerings for September were only $11,688.79, which is by far the lowest this year. At a time when we need to have increased offerings to help reduce our deficit, we are clearly going in the wrong direction and have greatly increased our deficit. With expenses of $16,474.33, our deficit for September alone is ($4,785.54). For the year ending September 30, 2016, our total offerings are $134,489.34 and our total expenses are $151,281.01, resulting in a deficit of ($16,791.67). This is by far our largest deficit in years.

We are a blessed church, with a supportive and loving congregation; and if we work together, we will overcome this temporary financial difficulty. May God bless you all who give so generously and so faithfully!

What's Up(stairs)?

The widow's mite(s) were like these 2000 year old copper coins.

Two Mites

And He looked up and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. And He said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.
Luke 21: 1-4.

This month WoRM will focus on the Widow's Mites as found in the Gospel according to Mark and according to Luke as we study the fruit (of the spirit) of goodness. We will learn that:

- No gift of love is too small;
- Sharing with unselfishness does not go unnoticed by God;
- Even the smallest gift can be the most generous gift. It depends upon the heart.

Students will study the story extensively using the King James Version with an audio tape, Bible story booklets, The Message and the Revised Standard Student Bibles. Each student will offer his two mites and his heart to God knowing that it is his heart that gives weight to the offering plate.

Students will cook, make crafts, act out drama, view video clips, listen to music and complete other great activities.

There may also be additional activities this month. Please check your e-mail! If you would like to be added to WoRM email, contact llmashmash@aol.com or llmashmash@gmail.com. LMashburn

Food Drive Scheduled

Because Second Harvest Food Bank is low on food drive stock and salvage supplies, it has cut back their allotment for Greater Things Outreach Center in Welcome from 25 to 12 boxes per week. GTOC is not out of food. However, as a result of the cut-back, GTOC has had to reduce the amount of groceries current clients receive and cannot accept new clients except for emergency cases. It is possible that distribution days may also have to be cut back from 3 to 2.

To help alleviate the situation, Mt. Olivet is having a food drive for them beginning this week and going through Nov. 20, the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Boxes will be in the fire tower and behind the sanctuary. Requested items are:

crackers	mayo	cake mix	vegetable
soup	jello	frosting	oil
coffee	Pudding	brownie mix	canola oil
tea	Hamburger Helper	peanut butter	chocolate
sugar	canned tuna	Lipton Sides	milk
flour	canned salmon	shelf milk	Ravioli

From the Stewardship Commit- tee

You have been invited up to the third floor to worship in the Autumn Chapel. The Stewardship Committee encourages you to take advantage of this opportunity to pray for Mt. Olivet, the church as a whole, our community, and our nation.

We also encourage you to look around while up there and think about what you can do to help improve the facilities for these young folks that are the future of our church. The committee will be asking for volunteers to "spruce up" this area. Thank you.

Our 2016-2017 year is off to a great start! We have exciting events, missions, and outreach planned for this upcoming Fall. All youth need to have the general permission form filled out and a copy of insurance card turned into Amanda Batten prior to attending a youth event. General permission forms can be found on the church website or within the Forms folder on the youth bulletin board outside of the fellowship hall.

Calling all Chaperones/Drivers: If you are interested in being a chaperone or driver for any youth activities this upcoming year (e.g. progressive dinner, mission/outreach outings, WinterJam, CCC, SpiritUs), please contact Amanda Batten. There are a few forms that will need to be completed prior to participating in a youth event as a chaperone/driver.

Fall Retreat:

The youth will be traveling to Newland, NC in the mountains for our Fall retreat from Saturday, October 22 until Sunday, October 23. We will take a hike along the Blue Ridge Parkway, visit a waterfall, carve pumpkins, and enjoy fellowship with one another. Weather-permitting, we will spend our time truly taking in God's wonderful creation. Any youth or chaperones/drivers who are interested in attending this retreat need to contact Amanda Batten or sign-up on the youth bulletin board by Sunday, October 16.

October Project:

Throughout the month of October the youth are studying about God's creation (the environment) and what it means to be good stewards. The youth are working on a recycling project for the church. We look forward to being good stewards alongside of you as we start this venture. An announcement will be made once this project officially kicks-off.

Youth Snacks:

The youth very much appreciate everyone who has contributed to the youth snacks so far this year. We have many open dates for any individuals or groups that would like to sign-up to provide these during our youth group time. You can sign-up on the youth bulletin board.

Calendar for October:

- October 2: Youth group from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. (fellowship hall)
- October 9: Youth group from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. (fellowship hall)
- October 15: No youth group
- October 22 – 23: Fall Mountain Retreat

🎵 Music Notes 🎵

Christmas Rehearsals are underway for the December 18 cantatas. We welcome, for both services, singers from youth through seniors to be a part of our presentations. If you are looking for a kick start on getting into the real meaning of Christmas, please consider this holy opportunity.

Missy's early service chancel choir is working on a beautiful cantata called "The Greatest Story Ever Told." They rehearse on Thursday evenings in the church choir room. The 11 AM choristers practice on Wednesday evenings at the Knox residence. Their cantata is more like a Songs4Christmas worship agenda pointing to that Bethlehem morning. Please contact Missy Frye or myself to make sure we have enough music books and cd's for all.

Children and youth of the church need to contact Ms. Kathy to at least let us know that you will be open to being a part of the Christmas youth yearly pageant and play on December 11 at 6:00 PM. CD's will be available to help kids practice because of their busy after school activities and weekend sports commitments. Many believe it is too early to start those rehearsals, but it takes at least a month to make sure of the number of children participating and arranging Sunday through Sunday rehearsals either at the church or at Ms. Kathy's home. Regular Kidz/Youth rehearsals will remain on Wednesdays at 5:45 PM and Saturday at 10 AM in the Choir room.

Jesus is our Song and our Music.

In Faith, kknox

Please contact Missy Frye at fourfryes@triad.rr.com or 336-239-6571 if you are interested in playing handbells. No musical experience is needed.

Church Website

Take a look at our church website <http://mtolivetumc.net>! Then please take time to email Mark Batten (info@mtolivetumc.net) current information and pictures. We need your help keeping it up to date!

Our September meeting was truly blessed. We met at the parsonage for fellowship, pizza, a little business and a guest speaker. Janet Taylor came to share her story of how Jesus saved her. Such an amazing story that filled us with emotions that could not be contained. Please ask a sister next time you see her to share a snippet.

Mark your calendars for our semi-annual BAKE SALE November 13th in the fellowship hall m before and after worship services.

The next meeting will be on October 17 at the home of Kathy Knox. Come be filled with comfort food, circle love, and working on our fall missions.

Prayer for the Election

God of justice and compassion,
God of Republicans and Democrats and Independents,
God of the poor and the 1% and the middle class,
in the heat of this election year
*we pray for our nation, our churches, and ourselves.

In the midst of meanness and deception,
*may our words be kind and true.

In the midst of loud speeches and harsh accusations,
*may we listen well and try to understand.

May those who follow Jesus do the work of Jesus—breaking down the dividing walls
speaking the truth in love meeting together in the face of disagreements.

Holy, loving God, have mercy on your children.

LEXINGTON, NC 27295
WWW.MTOLIVETUMC.NET

Dear friends,

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes a child welcomes me." (Matthew 18:5). Children are our present and our future, our hope, our teachers, our inspiration. They are full participants in the life of the church and in the realm of God.

Jesus also said, "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea." (Matthew 18:6) Our Christian faith calls us to offer both hospitality and protection to the little ones, the children. The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state that "...children must be protected from economic, physical and sexual exploitation and abuse." (para. 162C)

Tragically, churches have not always been safe places for children. Child sexual abuse, exploitation and ritual abuse (ritual abuse refers to abusive acts committed as part of ceremonies or rites; ritual abusers are often related to cults, or pretend to be) occur in churches, both large and small, urban and rural. The problem cuts across all economic, cultural and racial lines. It is real, and it appears to be increasing. Most annual conferences can cite specific incidents of child sexual abuse and exploitation in their churches. Virtually every congregation has among its members adult survivors of early sexual trauma.

Such incidents are devastating to all who are involved: the child, the family, the local church and its leaders. Increasingly, churches are torn apart by the legal, emotional, and monetary consequences of litigation following allegations of abuse.

God calls us to make our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from sexual and ritual abuse. God calls us to create communities of faith where children and adults grow safe and strong. (From The Book of Resolutions of The United Methodist Church. P. 384-386)

By recommendation and approval of Staff-Parish Relations Committee (SPRC) and Administrative Board, in covenant with all United Methodist congregations, Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church has adopted a Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures guideline for the prevention of child abuse in our church. The Safe Sanctuary Policy and Procedures is available for review on our church website, www.mtolivetumc.net, and in the vestibule of the church.

Your continued efforts toward keeping our church a safe place for worship and growing the faith of our children is most important. Thank you for the love and care given in maintaining a safe environment for all who come here to worship.

May God's grace and peace continue to dwell in and through each of us as we follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform the world.

Blessings to you,
Rev. Sandra Ireson, Pastor
