DC RESIDENTS,
are you ready to vote?

In DC, you have the right to vote, even if you have a criminal record.

Yes, you can vote, even if you are:
- in jail or prison
- on probation
- on parole
- or if you have a felony conviction.

Turn this page over for info on how to vote.
Incarcerated DC residents, are you ready to vote?

Even if serving time for a felony, DC residents have the right to vote in DC elections.

1. Register to vote:
Complete a voter registration form. It may be available from the Voting Coordinator. Send it in as early as you can.

2. Update your registration:
Whenever you change addresses, you need to update your registration.

3. Get the information you need:
Get information about candidates, registration, ballots and voting. Call the DC Insider Voter Information Line at 202-800-6190. DC Insider Voter Information Line: A Service of the non-partisan League of Women Voters DC.

4. Problems:
If you have any trouble registering to vote or casting your ballot, let us know. You can email us at lwvdc1920@gmail.com

5. Call us collect:
Incarcerated DC residents can call us collect at 202-800-6190. The Information Line is usually staffed by volunteers from 12 noon to 6 pm, seven days a week.

All registered voters will receive their vote-by-mail ballot automatically. You do not need a stamp. Be sure your mail-in-ballot envelope is signed. Didn't get your ballot? Call the Board of Elections on 202-727-2525.
