

May 22, 2017 • Santa Fe, NM

Understanding Cultural Property

A Path to Healing
Through Communication

SYMPOSIUM 2017

Panelists include:

Tim Begay (Navajo)

Wes Cowan
Cowan's Auctions, Inc.

Kate Fitz Gibbon
Fitz Gibbon Law, LLC

Robert Gallegos
ATADA

Kim Martindale
Antique American Indian Art Show
Santa Fe

Dallin Maybee (Seneca / Arapaho)
SWAIA

Shannon Keller-O'Loughlin, Esq.
(Choctaw) Attorney

Arlen Quetawki (Zuni)

Gregory Smith
Hobbs Straus Dean & Walker, LLP

Sam Tenakhongva (Hopi)

Brian Vallo (Acoma)
School for Advanced Research

Robert Alan Hershey
University of Arizona
Rogers College of Law

Vanessa Elmore
Elmore Art Appraisals

Open to all--come, and listen to a full day of presentations by tribal representatives, specialized legal counsel, art professionals, auction houses, museum personnel, and various other interest groups, all with important viewpoints to share about the complexities surrounding cultural property.

The goals of the symposium are to inform the public about tribal values, and to find positive, respectful solutions and viable alternatives to legislation, that would enhance rather than harm Southwest regional and tribal economic interests.

Venue:

May 22, 2017 • 9am - 4:30pm
Eldorado Hotel Ballroom
309 W. San Francisco St
Santa Fe, NM 87501

Registration fees:

$35 per person

To register and purchase tickets, please visit www.atada.org/events

Presented by:

ATADA  ORG

The Antique Tribal Art
Dealers Association

SAR

The School for Advanced Research

with the generous support of

TCI WEALTH ADVISORS, INC.

www.tciwealth.com

HERITAGE
AUCTIONS