TESTIMONIALS

"Advertising with Speaking of Travel really helped to broaden our brand marketing in the Western North Carolina market and globally. Marilyn Ball is truly adept at mining the wonderful experiences of travel and communicating our message to her listening audience. I highly recommend Speaking of Travel as an excellent means to spreading the word for your business."

- SMALL FOOTPRINT TRAVELS

"Unlike a lot of travel shows, Marilyn Ball's program doesn't feature destinations. Instead it's conversations with guests who talk about why they travel, where they've been, what they ate, and how they planned a trip. Some guests are high-profile, others are everyday folks... any of these are great to listen to for inspiration and information."

- INSIDE RADIO
MARILYN BALL
RADIO AND PODCAST HOST

Marilyn Ball began Speaking of Travel to incorporate her love of travel and adventure with a portal for great storytelling. She helps raise awareness of natural environments by creating a support network so we all can all become more aware global citizens. Marilyn engages her audience in conversation, understands her audience, and has a natural flair for setting her guests at ease and encouraging authenticity.
