

The Summer Lotus

At this time of change and challenge the Seasonal Qigong Lotus practice offers internal stability, insight, and courage...

Khaleghl Quinn, Ph.D. in collaboration with Dancers Circle

Saturday, September 16, 2017

9:30 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Registration at 9:15 a.m.

Orinda Community Church

10 Irwin Way, Orinda CA 94563

Suggested Donation: $30

Join us as we explore the time of the summer lotus through walking meditation, QiGong and storytelling. You will have an opportunity to discover your soul code and participate in the Lotus blessing dance inspired by the delicate art of the Chinese Tea ceremony.

Khaleghl Quinn, Ph.D., (pronounced Kah-lel) was described in 1991 by Dr. Anton Jayasuriya, Chairman of the World Congress on Traditional and Complementary Medicine, as "one of the greatest exponents of East meets West who creates forums for human flowering." Dr. Quinn is a best-selling author, composer, and spiritual teacher. She holds a doctorate in philosophy and is a Qigong Master. Awards for her work on world peace, anti-bullying, and healing include the St. George's Cross for courage from the Knights of Malta, the Kidscape Award in London, and recently the Sui Generis Foundation Award in Berkeley.

Dancers Circle, under the direction of choreographer Genia Simpson and co-choreographer/director Jacqueline Corl-Seidel, has presented sacred dance in workshops, concerts, and worship services throughout the Bay Area since 1974. This interfaith group brings creativity, theological awareness, and liturgical sensitivity to their presentations.
