Day 1 – Wednesday 23 May 2018

8.45     Arrival tea/coffee
9.00     SESSION 1: Overview of the workshop & round-the-table introductions
         Chair: Devi Sridhar
9.20     Larry Gostin will start with a 30 min talk on his new book on health security and UHC
9.50     Rebecca Katz will then give a talk for 10 min on global health security
         Discussion
10.30    Tea/coffee break
10.45    SESSION 2: When pursuing universal health coverage and health systems strengthening how relevant is global health security to those goals? Or the other way around? What aspects of health systems do we need to be aware of based on your research drawing on country examples?
         Chair: Emily Mendenhall
         10.50 – Mark Hellowell  11.00 – Kristine Onarheim  11.10 – Charles Birungi
         Discussion
11.50    Weather permitting - all proceed outside for group photo
12.00    Lunch
1.00     SESSION 3: What is the role of donors? How much power do governments hold in both agendas (UHC & health security) and why does that matter? Also, what are LMIC perspectives and how do those priorities differ from HIC objectives?
         Chair: Larry Gostin
         1.10 – Emily Mendenhall  1.20 – Clare Wenhem  1.30 – Anuj Kapilashrami
         Discussion
2.00     Tea/coffee break
2.15     SESSION 4: Can global institutions pursue both global security aims and UHC aims? Or are they in conflict? Do certain tensions emerge in emergency situations? Can they be done in parallel or does GHS take resources from other global health programs?
         Chair: Rebecca Katz
         2.20 – Agomoni Ganguli-Mitra  2.30 – Mark Eccleston-Turner
         Discussion
3.10     SESSION 5: What larger issues do we need to integrate into this analysis? How relevant is the One Health Agenda to this debate? What aspects of One Health do we need to pay attention to when institutions develop their UHC/security strategies? How do we need to conceptualize and study these issues in conflict-ridden or fragile states?
         Chair: Rebecca Katz
         3.15 – Lisa Boden [One Health]  3.25 – Khuloud Alsaba [conflict]
         Discussion
4.00     Close
7.00     Drinks reception, Raeburn Room, Old College, EH8 9YL
         http://www.edinburghfirst.co.uk/venues/old-college/7.30     Dinner
Day 2 – Thursday 24 May 2018

8.45    Arrival tea/coffee

9.00    SESSION 7: Does infectious disease surveillance system and diagnostic capacity development move us towards UHC?
        Chair: Mark Hellowell
        9.10 – Elisabeth Mclinton, Insight from Bangladesh
        9.20 – Marlee Tichenor, Insight from Senegal
        9.30 – Srikanth Reddy, Insight from India
        Discussion

10.30   Tea/coffee

10.45   SESSION 8: What is the role, or possibility, of national and international law in enabling progress including in R&D? What about informal norms created by international and regional bodies?
        Chair: Anuj Kapilashrami
        10.50 – Alexandra Phelan
        11.00 – Josh Hutton
        11.10 – Renzo Guinto
        Discussion

11.45   SESSION 9: Closing session
        Chairs: Devi Sridhar & Rebecca Katz

12.15   SESSION 10: Working Lunch in Small Groups

-1.15   Chair: Anuj Kapilashrami

---

Public lecture by Dr Emily Mendenhall

Screening Room, 50 George Square, Edinburgh
Thursday 24 May 2018, 2.00 to 3.30

Registration is required for this talk:
https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/syndemic-diabetes-entanglements-of-poverty-trauma-and-aids-tickets-41818946595

---