About Horseman Group

Since 1978, we have been guiding our clients' financial futures. With a combined 100 years of experience, our investment professionals and administrative colleagues are committed to developing a genuine partnership with each client we serve. Our risk averse philosophy and commitment to the individual client has built a tradition of trust.

In addition, Horseman Group partners with many charities to help serve our community. These include the St. Louis Area Food Bank, Wounded Warrior Project, Alzheimer's Association and American Cancer Society. We also match client donations to the American Red Cross when disasters strike. We are committed to doing our part in making our community a stronger, better place to live.
