The First Lesson. The Reader begins

A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

Wisdom is more mobile than any motion; because of her pureness she pervades and penetrates all things. For she is a breath of the power of God, and a pure emanation of the glory of the Almighty; therefore nothing defiled gains entrance into her. For she is a reflection of eternal light, a spotless mirror of the working of God, and an image of his goodness. Though she is but one, she can do all things, and while remaining in herself, she renews all things; in every generation she passes into holy souls and makes them friends of God and prophets; for God loves nothing so much as the man who lives with wisdom.

The Reader concludes   The Word of the Lord.
Psalm 19: 7–11

At Said Mass the Reader says
Please join me in reading Psalm 19, verses 7 through 11, found in the red Prayer Book on page 607.
(The Reader repeats the above information as needed.)

At Sung Mass the Reader says
Please join me in reading Psalm 19 as found in the service bulletin.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

8 The statutes of the LORD are just
and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true
and righteous altogether.

Wisdom 7:24–28; Psalm 19:7–11; John 5:19–24
10 More to be desired are they than gold,
    more than much fine gold, *
sweeter far than honey,
    than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
    and in keeping them there is great reward.

Before the Season of Lent begins:
The Reader says

Please stand for the Gospel.

The Gospel Acclamation
The Reader leads the appointed acclamation.

Reader Alleluia.

People Alleluia.

Reader “I have called you friends,” says the Lord, *
    “for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you.”

People Alleluia.

The Reader returns to his or her seat.

The Holy Gospel
The Minister says The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Minister The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the crowd, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever he does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all that he himself is doing; and greater works than these will he show him, that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.”

The Minister says The Gospel of the Lord.
