

The Fifth Sunday of Easter

EVENING PRAYER &
EUCHARISTIC BENEDICTION

May 10, 2020, 5:00 PM

The Church of Saint Mary the Virgin in the City of New York

About Evening Prayer & Benediction

The Reformation gave Episcopalians an especially rich form of daily prayer. In Episcopal cathedrals and parishes, morning and evening Psalms and scripture are prayed in a regular pattern known as “The Daily Office.” Many members of our Church also pray one or both of these daily offices privately when they are unable to come to church. When Evening Prayer is sung it is called “Evensong.” During the academic year at Saint Mary’s, Sunday Evensong is normally offered, though we are unable to do so during this time. Tonight, Evening Prayer concludes with Eucharistic Benediction, a short rite of prayer and blessing where we focus on the Lord’s continuing presence among us in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

EVENING PRAYER & BENEDICTION

REGINA COELI 5:00 PM

All stand. The bells in the church are rung as the Officiant begins

O Queen of Heaven, be joyful.

People Alleluia.

Officiant Because he whom so meetly thou barest,

People Alleluia,

Officiant Hath arisen as he promised,

People Alleluia.

Officiant Pray for us to the Father,

People Alleluia.

Officiant Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

People For the Lord is risen indeed, alleluia.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, who, by the resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ, didst vouchsafe to give gladness unto the world: Grant, we beseech thee, that we, being holpen by the Virgin Mary, his mother, may ✠ attain unto the joys of everlasting life, through the same Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

EVENING PRAYER

The Invitatory and Psalter

The Officiant begins the Office, saying

Officiant ✠ O God, make speed to save us.
People O Lord, make haste to help us.

As they bow, the Officiant and People say

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

The Officiant begins

O gracious Light,

Officiant and People

pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,
O Son of God, O Giver of life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Then follows

The Psalm Appointed

*The Congregation recites Psalm 34. The Officiant recites the first half-verse. Then, all are seated.
The epistle side is the right-hand side of the church if one is facing the altar.*

Officiant	1	I will bless the LORD at all times; * his praise shall ever be in my mouth.	All are seated.
All
Epistle	2	I will glory in the LORD; * let the humble hear and rejoice.
Gospel	3	Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; * let us exalt his Name together.
Epistle	4	I sought the LORD, and he answered me * and delivered me out of all my terror.
Gospel	5	Look upon him and be radiant, * and let not your faces be ashamed.
Epistle	6	I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me * and saved me from all my troubles.
Gospel	7	The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, * and he will deliver them.
Epistle	8	Taste and see that the LORD is good; * happy are they who trust in him!
Gospel	9	Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, * for those who fear him lack nothing.
Epistle	10	The young lions lack and suffer hunger, * but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.
Gospel	11	Come, children, and listen to me; * I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
Epistle	12	Who among you loves life * and desires long life to enjoy prosperity?

Gospel	13	Keep your tongue from evil-speaking * and your lips from lying words.
Epistle	14	Turn from evil and do good; * seek peace and pursue it.
Gospel	15	The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, * and his ears are open to their cry.
Epistle	16	The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, * to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
Gospel	17	The righteous cry, and the LORD hears them * and delivers them from all their troubles.
Epistle	18	The LORD is near to the broken-hearted * and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
Gospel	19	Many are the troubles of the righteous, * but the LORD will deliver him out of them all.
Epistle	20	He will keep safe all his bones; * not one of them shall be broken.
Gospel	21	Evil shall slay the wicked, * and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
Epistle	22	The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, * and none will be punished who trust in him.	All stand.
All	Bow	 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

All are seated. The appointed Lesson, Ecclesiasticus 43:1–12, 27–32, is now read.

After praising God for the depths of his knowledge—“no thought escapes him, and not one word is hidden from him”—the author tells of the beauty and grandeur of creation in order to praise God, who made sun, moon and stars, and set the heavenly bodies in their courses. The author concludes this song of praise saying, “[The Lord] is the all,” for all creatures reveal the divine presence. He urges his readers to glorify the Lord and “exalt him as much as you can.”

After the Lesson, the Reader says

 The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Canticle: The Song of Mary Magnificat

All stand. The canticle is recited antiphonally. The epistle side is the right-hand side of the church if one is facing the altar.

Officiant My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
 my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
All for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
Epistle From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
 the Almighty has done great things for me,
 and holy is his Name.
Gospel He has mercy on those who fear him *
 in every generation.
Epistle He has shown the strength of his arm, *
 he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
Gospel He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
 and has lifted up the lowly.
Epistle He has filled the hungry with good things, *
 and the rich he has sent away empty.
Gospel He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *
 for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
Epistle The promise he made to our fathers, *
 to Abraham and his children for ever.

All Bow | Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit: *

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Lesson

All are seated. The Reader reads the appointed Lesson, James 1:2–8, 16–18.

James begins his “wisdom-sermon” with words of exhortation: trials and testing of faith produce endurance; if one lacks wisdom, one should turn to God in faith, for he “gives to all generously.”

After the Lesson, the Reader says

People The Word of the Lord.
 Thanks be to God.

The Song of Simeon

Nunc Dimittis

All stand. The canticle is recited antiphonally. The epistle side is the righthand side of the church if one is facing the altar.

Officiant Lord, you now have set your servant free *
All to go in peace as you have promised;

Epistle For these eyes of mine have seen the Savior, *
 whom you have prepared for all the world to see:

Gospel A Light to enlighten the nations, *
 and the glory of your people Israel.

All Bow | Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit: *

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

All remain standing. The Creed is said. The Officiant begins

All I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Officiant begins

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.
Officiant Our Father,
People who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Suffrages

The Officiant leads the People in the suffrages.

That this evening may be holy, good, and peaceful,
We entreat you, O Lord.

That your holy angels may lead us in paths of peace and goodwill,
We entreat you, O Lord.

That we may be pardoned and forgiven for our sins and offenses,
We entreat you, O Lord.

That there may be peace to your Church and to the whole world,
We entreat you, O Lord.

That we may depart this life in your faith and fear, and not be condemned before the great judgment seat of Christ,
We entreat you, O Lord.

That we may be bound together by your Holy Spirit in the communion of the glorious and ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Francis of Assisi, and all your saints, entrusting one another and all our life to Christ,
We entreat you, O Lord.

The Collects

The Officiant prays the collects. The People respond, Amen.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lord God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ triumphed over the powers of death and prepared for us our place in the new Jerusalem: Grant that we, who have this day given thanks for his resurrection, may praise you in that City of which he is the light, and where he lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

O God and Father of all, whom the whole heavens adore: Let the whole earth also worship you, all nations obey you, all tongues confess and bless you, and men and women everywhere love you and serve you in peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Then may be said

Officiant Let us bless the Lord, alleluia, alleluia.

Congregation Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.

EUCHARISTIC EXPOSITION & BENEDICTION

Hymn: O salutaris Hostia

The Officiant moves to the foot of the altar. The Congregation kneels. The Sacrament is placed in the monstrance

The Officiant kneels. The Cantor intones the first phrase of the appointed hymn, after which the Congregation joins in singing the hymn.

Music: Tantum ergo Sacramentum, plainsong, Mode 5, Zisterzienser Hymnar, fourteenth century

The Prayers

The Officiant leads the Divine Praises, the Congregation repeating each sentence after him.

Blessed be God.
Blessed be his Holy Name.
Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true man.
Blessed be the Name of Jesus.
Blessed be his Most Sacred Heart.
Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar.
Blessed be the Holy Ghost, the comforter.
Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.
Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.
Blessed be Saint Joseph, her most chaste spouse.
Blessed be God in his angels and in his saints.

Then, the Officiant stands and sings

You gave them bread from heaven, alleluia,

People Containing within itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Officiant Let us pray.

God our Father, whose Son our Lord Jesus Christ in a wonderful Sacrament has left us a memorial of his passion: Grant us so to venerate the sacred mysteries of his Body and Blood, that we may ever perceive within ourselves the fruit of his redemption; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People A-MEN.

The Eucharistic Blessing

The Officiant goes to the altar, genuflects, takes the monstrance, and makes the sign of the Cross over the assembly with the monstrance.

The Reposition

The Sacrament is reposed. All stand. Then the Cantor and People sing the Eastertide antiphon and Psalm 117.

Let us for ev - er a - dore the Most Ho - ly Sac-ra - ment.

Al - le - lu - ia.

Let us for ev - er a - dore the Most Ho - ly Sac-ra - ment.

Al - le - lu - ia.

Praise the Lord, all you na- tions; *
laud him, all you peo- ples.

For his lov - ing - kind - ness toward us is great; *
and the faith - ful - ness of the Lord en - dures for ev - er. Al - le - lu - ia.

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, * and to the Ho - ly Spir - it:
As it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, * and will be for ev - er. A - men.

Let us for ev - er a - dore the Most Ho - ly Sac-ra - ment.

Al - le - lu - ia.

Officiant May the Divine Assistance remain with us always.
People And with those who are absent from us.
