

DATA PROCESSING AGREEMENT

This Data Processing Agreement ("DPA") is hereby entered by and between Pic-time Ltd. ("Company") and you, a photographer using Company's services and platform ("Photographer"), each a "party" and collectively, the "parties". This DPA forms a binding agreement and amends any previously terms relating to the Processing of Personal Data. As of the Effective Date, this DPA shall be an integral part of the signed or online accepted and executed agreement between the parties ("Agreement").

This DPA shall effective as May 25, 2018 ("Effective Date") and to the extent that EU Data Protection Law applies to the Processing of Personal Data under the Agreement, including if:

- (a) the Processing is in the context of the activities of an establishment of either party in the European Economic Area ("EEA"); or
- (b) the Personal Data relates to Data Subjects who are in the EEA and the Processing relates to the offering to them of goods or services or the monitoring of their behavior in the EEA by or on behalf of a party.

Notwithstanding the above, this DPA and the obligations hereunder do not apply to aggregated reporting or statistics information a party may collect from end users or provide to the other party.

This DPA sets forth the parties' responsibilities and obligations regarding the Processing of Personal Data during the course of the parties'.

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in the Agreement.

1. DEFINITIONS

- 1.1. "Data Protection Law" means any and all applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulations (including, where applicable, EU Data Protection Law) as may be amended or superseded from time to time.

- 1.5. "Photographer Data" means any and all data shared between the parties that may include, inter alia, customer data, contact information such as name, address, email address, all as detailed in Schedule 1 attached herein.

2. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

In relation to Photographer Data, the Company acknowledges that, as between the parties, Photographer is the Controller of the Photographer Data, and that the Company, in providing the services is acting as a Processor on behalf of the Controller. The subject-matter and duration of the Processing carried out by the Processor on behalf of the Controller, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects are described in Schedule 1. The Photographer represents and warrants that: (a) its Processing instructions comply with all applicable Data Protection Laws; and (b) if applicable, it has obtained and maintains all legally required notices, consents and permissions for the Processing and transfer of all Personal Data provided to Company. The Photographer acknowledges that, taking into account the nature of the Processing, the Company is not in a position to determine whether the Photographer's instructions infringe applicable Data Protection Laws. Notwithstanding the above, the Company shall be the Controller of the Personal Data as detailed in the Company privacy policy available herein: www.pic-time.com#privacypolicy.

3. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Photographer hereby warrants and represents that as of May 25, 2018 it will comply with EU Data Protection Law, specifically with the lawful basis for Processing Personal Data. The Company represents and warrants it shall process Personal Data, as set forth under Article 28(3) of the GDPR and Schedule 1 attached herein, on behalf of the Photographer, solely for the purpose of providing the service. Notwithstanding the above, in the event required under applicable laws, the Company may Process Personal Data other than as instructed by the Photographer, in such event the Company shall make best efforts to inform the Photographer of such requirement unless prohibited under applicable law.

4. CONSENT REQUIREMENTS & RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

In the event consent is required under Data Protection Law, the Photographer shall: (i) ensure that it obtains consent from Data Subjects and displays all necessary and applicable notices in accordance with the Data Protection Law as well as enable lawful transfer of the Personal Data to the Company; (ii) maintain a record of all consents obtained from Data Subject, including the time and data on which consent was obtained, the information presented to Data Subject; and (iii) record of the withdrawals of consent by Data Subject. The Photographer shall make these records available to the Company promptly upon request. It is agreed that where either party receives a request from a Data Subject or an applicable authority in respect of Personal Data Controlled or Processed by the other party, where relevant, the party receiving such request will direct the Data Subject or the authority to the other party, as applicable, in order to enable the other party to respond directly to the Data Subject's request. Each party shall reasonable cooperate and assist the other party in handling of a Data Subject's or an authority's request, to the extent permitted under Data Protection Law.

5. SUB-PROCESSOR

The Photographer acknowledges that the Company may transfer Personal Data to and otherwise interact with third party data processors ("Sub-Processor"). Photographer hereby, authorizes the Company to engage and appoint such Sub-Processors to Process Personal Data, as well as permits each Sub-Processor to appoint a Sub- Processor on its behalf. The Company may, continue to use those Sub-Processors already engaged (as detailed in Schedule 2) by the Company and the Company may, engage an additional or replace an existing Sub-Processor to process Personal Data provided that it notifies the Photographer. The Company shall, where it engages any Sub-Processor impose, through a legally binding contract between the Company and Sub-Processor, data protection obligations no less onerous than those set out in this DPA on the Sub-Processor, in particular providing sufficient guarantees to implement appropriate technical and organizational measures in such a manner that the processing will meet the requirements of the GDPR.

6. TECHNICAL AND SECURITY MEASURES

Each party shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect the Personal Data and its security, confidentiality and integrity and the Data Subject's rights.

7. SECURITY INCIDENT

The Company will notify the Photographer without undue delay upon becoming aware that an actual Security Incident involving the Photographer Data in Company's possession or control has occurred, as Company determines in its sole discretion. Company's notification of or response to a Security Incident under this section 3 shall not be construed as an acknowledgment by the Company of any fault or liability with respect to the Security Incident. The Company will, in connection with any Security Incident affecting Photographer Data: (i) quickly and without delay, take such steps as are necessary to contain, remediate, minimize any effects of and investigate any Security Incident and to identify its cause (ii) co-operate with Photographer and provide Photographer with such assistance and information as it may reasonably require in connection with the containment, investigation, remediation or mitigation of the Security Incident; and (iii) immediately notify Photographer in writing of any request, inspection, audit or investigation by a supervisory authority or other authority.

8. AUDIT RIGHTS

The Company shall make available, solely upon prior written notice and no more than once per year, to a reputable auditor nominated by the Photographer, information necessary to reasonably demonstrate compliance with this DPA, and shall allow for audits, including inspections, by such reputable auditor solely in relation to the Processing of the Personal Data ("Audit"). The Audit shall be subject to the terms of this DPA and confidentiality obligations (including towards third parties). The Company may object in writing to an auditor appointed by the Photographer in the event the Company reasonably believes, the auditor is not suitably qualified or independent, a competitor of the Company or otherwise manifestly unsuitable ("Objection Notice"). In the event of Objection Notice, the Photographer will appoint a different auditor or conduct the Audit itself. The Photographer shall bear all expenses related to the Audit and shall make (and ensure that each of its mandated auditors makes) reasonable endeavors to avoid causing (or, if it cannot avoid, to minimize) any damage, injury or disruption to the Company's premises, equipment, personnel and business while its personnel are on those premises in the course of such Audit. Any and all conclusions of such Audit shall be confidential and reported back to the Company immediately.

9. DATA TRANSFER

Where EU Data Protection Law applies, neither party shall transfer to a territory outside of the EEA unless it has taken such measures as are necessary to ensure the transfer is in compliance with EU Data Protection Law. Such measures may include (without limitation) transferring the Personal Data to a recipient in a country that the European Commission has decided provides adequate protection for Personal Data.

10. LIABILITY

Each party, is solely and exclusively liable for all actions, omissions and processing activities that it or its directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents takes in respect of Personal Data.

11. IDEMNIFICATION

Each party (an 'Indemnifying Party') shall indemnify and save harmless the other party and its directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents (the 'Indemnified Party'), against all demands, claims, actions, liabilities, losses, costs, damages or expenses whatsoever (including reasonable attorneys' fees) asserted against, imposed upon or incurred by the Indemnified Party, to the extent and portion they result from or arise out of the Indemnifying Party's actions or omissions in violation of applicable Data Protection Law or this DPA.

12. GENERAL

In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this DPA and the Company's privacy policy, the Company's privacy policy shall prevail, provided only that the procedure prevailing through the privacy policy shall not constitute as a breach or infringement of any Data Protection Laws. In the event of inconsistencies between the provisions of this DPA and any other agreements signed between the parties, the terms of this DPA shall prevail. Nothing in this DPA shall confer any benefits or rights on any person or entity other than the parties to this DPA.
