There shall be an opportunity for General Assembly Representatives to express their preferences, which, however, cannot be guaranteed and depend on the needs of each committee and the number of interested members. Every month of every committee membership for which a member is absent without accepted excuse from a majority of committee meetings called at least seven (7) days in advance or fails to meet the criteria for active committee participation, as defined in the committee’s or its parent’s Bylaws or policies it has adopted for this purpose, shall count as an absence from a General Assembly meeting.” as Article VI(C);

A member represented by proxy counts as present for the purpose of determining a voting result.” as Article II(E)(8);
