WINE PAIRINGS

About the wine pairings this week...

We take a lot of pride in our wine pairings. Once the menu is posted on Fridays we talk about it over the next few days and work to get a feel for which wines suit the mood and flavors of the week. Generally we stick with wines currently on our RowHouse winelist, but once in a while we will bring in something brand new. If you'd like to know what we are pairing with dinner the night you are joining us, please feel free to give us a call that afternoon.

Cheers!

This Week at RowHouse...

Since 2012, we have been doing this annual week of menu's we call, "The Farmer's Market Menu". It's a great challenge for those of us in the kitchen to change the menu each day, based on finds from that day. We keep the proteins the same, but they can move around a bit. It's energizing and spontaneous, and I look at this menu as a tool to help continue teaching cook's to think outside the box. Steven and Pablo are a great team to work in the kitchen with. They are excited to get this party started. We'd LOVE to see you for Dinner!

We love every night you make a RowHouse night!
