PHRASES YOU NEED TO KNOW:

The parent with Legal Custody has the authority to make all major life decisions regarding the child/ren. Major life decisions include, but are not limited to, the child/ren’s residence, education, health care and religious training. Only a court order can give legal custody of the child to someone other than the parents.

LEGAL CUSTODY

A Delegation of Parental/Guardian Powers is a specific type of Power of Attorney that grants any of the powers of the parent or guardian regarding the care, custody, and property of the minor child to another party. This includes the authority to make decisions regarding the child’s residence, education, health care, etc. It can last only six months.

DELEGATION OF POWERS

A Relative Caregiver Affidavit permits a family member to consent to medical treatment and educational services for a minor child (that the minor child cannot otherwise legally consent to him/herself) if the consent of the legal parent or guardian cannot be obtained.

RELATIVE CAREGIVER Affidavit

WHAT TO DO:

Only a court order can give legal custody of your child to someone else. The Delegation of Parental/Guardian Powers (which is a type of Power of Attorney) in this packet can give the caregiver very temporary legal rights, such as the authority to make medical, educational and travel decisions regarding the child. It can be effective for no more than six months. You can revoke it at any time.
The Delegation of Parental/Guardian Powers does not guarantee that the child will be placed with the caregiver. To go through the process to place a child in the legal custody of someone other than the parent, you should consult a family law attorney. The second form included in this packet, the Relative Caregiver Affidavit, can only be used by a caregiver who is a family member and can be completed only after the child is already living with the caregiver.

Make at least three original signed copies of the Delegation of Parental/Guardian Powers. Give one to your chosen caregiver, keep one at your home, and put one (folded in a small plastic bag) in your child’s backpack. You may also wish to give additional copies to other trusted adults, such as a daycare provider or other adults who may be contacted if you are unavailable. You may wish to tell your child that if there is an emergency, he or she should show this paper to the authorities, the teacher, or whomever is talking to them about taking them to another home.

Make sure your chosen caregiver understands your wishes for your child. Make a plan for how they will communicate with you if you are absent for more than six months. Give them a copy of all important documents, including medical information and emergency numbers. Give them phone numbers of relatives in your country of origin, if you have them. Give your family and emergency contacts your A-Number (your alien registration number found on your immigration documents from ICE) if you have one.

Choose a trusted adult (over 18) to care for your child if you cannot. It is best if this person is a family member and has authorization to live in the US (green card or citizenship). Make sure the caregiver is listed as the emergency contact with your child’s school or daycare.

If you are detained by ICE, family members can use the ICE detainee locator:

II. LEGAL FORMS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DELEGATION OF PARENTAL/GUARDIAN POWERS FORM:

This Delegation designates another person (called the “attorney-in-fact”) to make decisions regarding a minor child/ren in lieu of the child/ren’s parent or legal guardian. The “attorney-in-fact” can be any reliable person and does not have to be a lawyer. It is not a court order. It is accepted by many, but not all, people or organizations as proof that the person has the legal right to make decisions for the child/ren.

A parent who does not agree with the decisions of the attorney-in-fact has more authority over the child than the attorney-in-fact. This form cannot replace or supersede the authority of the other parent. This form cannot be used to transfer custody. It does not affect the rights of the child’s parents regarding the care, custody and control of the child and can be withdrawn at any time.

Fill out the English version of the form. Fill out the specific information regarding the child/ren and the attorney-in-fact as designated on the form. Indicate what powers you are giving to the attorney-in-fact over your minor child/ren. The first box is for a general delegation granting all powers a parent would ordinarily have over the child/ren. The second box allows you to state the specific responsibilities and powers you want to grant. If you choose to select specific powers, be sure to list what those powers are in the box provided.

The completed Delegation must be signed by both the parent or legal guardian and the attorney-in-fact. Make several copies of the form since you or the attorney-in-fact will probably have to give a copy to each person or organization that the attorney-in-fact will need to deal with on behalf of the child/ren. Show them the original, and give them the copy. Keep the original in a safe place.

Under Oregon law, a Delegation of Parental/Guardian Powers is effective for a maximum of six months. You can limit this time period to as little as you want, but you cannot extend it beyond six months. If you need another Delegation after six months, a new Delegation must be signed. Persons in the US Armed Forces called to active duty can have a Delegation last through the active duty period plus 30 days.

The parent granting the Delegation can withdraw (revoke) it at any time, even before the expiration date on the Delegation. It is best that the withdrawal be in writing. A form called Revocation of Delegation of Powers is attached. If you are a parent withdrawing the Delegation, be sure to fill out the Revocation and deliver it to the person to whom you granted the Delegation and to the people or organizations to whom you gave a copy of the Delegation. The withdrawal is effective immediately upon delivery.

If a child is a US citizen or otherwise eligible for a passport, he/she should get a passport. The passport requires signatures from both parents. If there is only one parent available, another form must be filled out. If the child has a passport, he/she can travel outside of the country and return lawfully. If the child is from another country, a passport may still be helpful within that country. These instructions explain how to obtain passports for citizens of the United States and Mexico. If you are a citizen of another country, please contact the nearest consulate of your country of origin for instructions.

KEEP IN MIND:
Both parents must prove their identities through any of the following documents:

- Matricula consular (issued after 5/13/2005)
- Voter’s identification card (credencial de elector)
- Military service card
- Certificate of primary or secondary school issued by SEP
- Certified report card of any school year in Mexico, with a photograph
- Professional credential or identification

3 PROOF OF PARENTAL CONSENT

If one parent has sole custody of the child, they will need to prove that they have sole custody. This proof can include a birth certificate that lists only one parent, a certified court order granting sole legal custody, a certified divorce decree, a certified adoption decree, a certified certificate of death of the parent who cannot appear or any other certified court order that proves that you have sole legal custody.

Proof of parental relationship and consent if the child is under the age of 16:

If two parents have custody of the child, then you must show that both parents authorize the child to have a passport. Both parents have to be with the child when they apply for the passport. If they cannot, then you will have to show that the parent who is not with the child has given permission or is not able to give permission.

- To give permission, the parent who is not able to go with the child must fill out Form DS-3053 “Statement of Consent”. This form must be notarized and expires 90 days after the day it was signed. A photocopy of the front and back of the parents’ ID must be with the form. If both parents cannot be with the child, they will both have to complete the form.
- To prove that the parent asking for the passport cannot get permission from the parent who cannot give permission, the parent can submit Form DS-5525 “Statement of Exigent/Special Family Circumstances.” If there are safety concerns for the parent asking for the passport and the child, this form can be used to ask for the passport without the other parent.
If your child is 16 or 17 and has their own ID:

They can apply without a parent being present, but the passport agencies prefer one parent to be with the child or give written consent (a signed statement with a photocopy of the parents' ID).

Find more information about where to take photos:

Must bring the original ID and a photocopy of the front and back of each ID you use. If the child is under 16, the parent must bring an ID. If the child is 16 or 17, they can bring their ID or their parent must bring their ID. ID documents can include:

- State issued, valid non-driver ID or driver’s license
- Certificate of Naturalization or Citizenship
- Valid or expired, undamaged passport from the US or any other country
- Matricula consular
- Valid work permit or permanent resident card issued by Department of Homeland Security

Fee amounts depend on how quickly you need the passport:

- Regular processing time is 4-6 weeks and costs a total of $105 ($80 passport fee, $25 processing fee)
- Expedited processing in person will take about 8 business days (maybe less depending on need and if you can prove there is an emergency) and costs a total of $185.66 ($80 passport fee, $25 processing fee, $60 expedited processing fee, $20.66 overnight delivery fee)
To obtain a passport for minors and people with disabilities, both parents must be present with the minor and present the following documents:

1. BIRTH CERTIFICATE
   - Birth certificate of minor or disabled individual.

2. PARENT CONSENT FORM
   - Consent form of the parents or guardian (OP7 or OP8) given at the consulate.

3. OFFICIAL I.D. AND PHOTO
   - Minors can show either:
     - (under 10 years old) Letter from a school in Oregon containing a photo of the child, full name, date of birth, signature of the administrator or official, seal of the school or district.
     - (under 7 years old) Letter from a pediatrician with a photo of the child, full name, date of birth and seal of the medical office.

KEEP IN MIND:

If one of the parents cannot be present at the consulate during the appointment because they live in another state, they can issue their consent by visiting the nearest consulate or SRE office in Mexico with a copy of the minor’s birth certificate and a valid photo ID, and filling out an OP7.

TO APPLY:

1. Make an appointment by calling 1-877-639-4835 or via internet: https://mexitel.sre.gob.mx/citas.webportal/
2. Go to the consulate the day of your appointment and fill out passport application. The document will be ready the same day.

COST PER PASSPORT:

- 1 year & cases of consular protection & minors under 3 years old: $32
- 3 years: $74
- 6 years: $101
- 10 years: $136
