WARNING!

This is the back of the application. We know at first glance it does look a lot like the front! At This Point in the application process, we have many people tell us how easy or short our application is. It is now, that we would like to point out that to every side of paper, there is another side. So if you are serious about working for us, please turn the page over and read the whole thing. If, however, you feel that what we have to say is not that important, at least humor us and read the first paragraph. You might find it worthwhile.
