Philippians 2:5-11

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form,

Philippians 2:5-11

he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:5-11

Christ suffered for us and is now exalted above all.

“I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried...”

Apostles' Creed

“The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.”

The Humiliation of the King

The Exaltation of the King

“the universal banishment of all that is ‘incognito’ about the Kingship of Jesus.”

J.A. Motyer

“a position of recognizable superiority over all creation..his superiority more fully evident to the creation over which he rules.”

Frank Thielman

“The universe is no democracy. It is a monarchy. God himself has appointed his beloved Son as the preeminent King. Jesus does not rule by referendum, but by divine right. In the future every knee will bow before him, either willingly or unwillingly.”
