High School Internship Opportunities

Internships

The Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton University presents exciting exhibitions, cultural events, and innovative programs in the arts.

High school interns are offered a chance to make real contributions while gaining experience in the museum field. The Noyes Museum of Art is seeking interns who are mature, energetic, enthusiastic, and self-motivated. These are unpaid positions.

Internship Objectives

The Museum provides interns with an educational experience where students gain first hand practical knowledge of the museum field. This program provides the opportunity to learn about aspects of museum operations and to work on projects under the guidance of the Education Director.

Selection Process

Interested candidates must be a junior or senior, have a strong interest in art or art history, have a minimum of a 3.0 grade average, provide two recommendation letters, fill out the application form and email or mail it to Saskia Schmidt, Director of Education (see address information at end of form). After receipt of the application, candidates of interest will be contacted to schedule an appointment for an interview. Accepted interns must commit to at least 4 Saturdays over the course of the school year or 4 week days during the summer. Interns are encouraged to attend monthly Museum events and activities.

Potential Projects

Interns will become acquainted with the general functions and operations of the Museum. Interns will be supervised by the Education Director.

Education

Assist Director of Education with children's art classes

Summer interns: Assist with summer art camps for children

Train to become a museum guide, leading school tours for young children

Additional programs: children's activities, special event projects, and assistance with the "Young at Art" Gallery
