The World's Uncertainty

Valeria Marcus, Artist

Atlantic City, New Jersey native, Valeria Marcus started loving and creating art at a young age. Attending Atlantic City High, she began working with abstract art and was later accepted in a drawing class and Scholarship program at Moore College of Art & Design as a senior in high school.

After graduating Moore with a BFA in Photography, she also became a Child Abuse Advocate in her hometown. Listed in many galleries across the U.S. and exhibitions from 1971 to now.

As of now, she spends her time organizing seminars, panels, and awareness throughout her community on child abuse. She is currently trying to get a Law to pass in New Jersey. Being a member of different exhibitions and commissions in the past, she now serves as an Advisory Board Member for the Atlantic City Arts Foundation and works with an Asbury United Methodist Church Child Abuse Group in Atlantic City.
