

A Ski-In/Ski-Out Massage Is the Ultimate Indulgence Here's where to get one.

THE VICEROY SNOWMASS

by BRANDON PERLMAN

FEB 18, 2016

Since opening in 2009 the Viceroy Snowmass has been a shining beacon of luxury just outside of hustle and bustle, see and be seen culture of Aspen. A distinctly private yet expansive mountain retreat, everything you could possibly need is at your fingertips. We dropped in recently to see what new aspects the 165-room property had to offer.

Chef-Led Shrine Tour followed by Apres-Ski Cooking and Cocktail Lesson

What better way to follow a guided day of shredding perfectly groomed slopes above 8,000 feet than with a apres-ski feast? Executive Chef (and expert snowboarder) Will Nolan leads guests on a tour of Snowmass Resort's famous ski shrines (hidden plaques and memorials devoted to local legends). Afterward, guests return to the property for an après-ski cooking and cocktail lesson in either the kitchen of Ricard's or Eight K. Chef

Nolan is widely known in the Roaring Fork Valley for infusing Southern flavors into his dishes where "Modern American" has become de rigeur.

$730 for a full day or $550 for a 3-hour + $100 for culinary après reception

Ski-In/Ski-Out Spa Treatments

VICEROY SNOWMASS

As if ski in/ski out weren't convenient enough, the Viceroy Snowmass is the first property we've heard of to offer ski-in/ski-out spa treatments designed specifically to quickly invigorate guests in 30 minutes or less and get them back out on the slopes and power through the afternoon. What's more, Executive Chef, Will Nolan, has created a Mediterranean-focused lunch menu exclusively available during these treatments.

Treatment list:

The perfect recipe: Submerge feet in a warm bath of Sweet Birch sea salt, exfoliate, add a Lemongrass Mimosa scrub to smooth skin and increase circulation, throw in a hot stone massage with deeply moisturizing Mighty Mint Rescue Cream and voila, ready to rip up the mountain for the rest of your trip. All in just 30 minutes.

WARM UP YOUR HANDS AND TOES, $95

High altitude equals parched skin, enjoy a deeply hydrating hand and foot therapy starts with warm Concreta and nourishing coconut oil that offers deep conditioning and protection for your hands and feet.
