

Penthouses Unveiled at the Residences Viceroy Snowmass

The units are available for $3.4 million and $5 million

ANDREA LÓPEZ CRUZADO

SEPTEMBER 12, 2016

The Residences Viceroy Snowmass has unveiled its two penthouses in Aspen. In the dining area, a glass chandelier made with bronze metal accents hangs above the round, walnut-wood table.

THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

With summer in the U.S. almost officially over, the Residences Viceroy Snowmass is getting buyers excited about the winter with the unveiling of its two penthouses.

Both units at the Related development in Colorado's upscale town of Aspen offer mountain views, two full decks and balconies, a dining room and a living area featuring a large fireplace.

The living area in both penthouses features a fireplace, custom wall coverings and light-colored drapes.
THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

The kitchen has Bosch appliances concealed behind wood paneling, marble countertops with an antique gray tile backsplash, and a peninsula bar that opens into the living area.
THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

The master bedroom features a fireplace and an upholstered leather headboard equipped with saddle pockets for storage.

THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

The smaller penthouse has a total of three bedrooms while the larger one has four.

THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

The sauna-like bathrooms in each residence are accented in porcelain.
THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS

Each of the penthouses has two full decks and balconies offering mountain views.
THE RESIDENCES VICEROY SNOWMASS