OUR PRESENTERS ....

PETER CULTICE is a 1976 graduate of ZHS, a 1980 graduate of Emory U. (BA in history), and a 1983 graduate of the Ohio Northern College of Law. He has been in private practice in Zanesville since 1983 and currently serves as Guernsey County Probate/Juvenile Court Magistrate.

Mr. Cultice has spoken at various SEO Civil War roundtables about the Emancipation Proclamation, Religion and the Civil War, and the Political and Social Impact of Slavery in the South from 1790-1861. He has also presented programs for Muskingum County History about the Underground Railroad and Anti-Slavery activism in Putnam.

Pete and his wife Trudy have been married for 31 years and have two children, Sarah and Alex.

PAM KIRST is a retired higher education professional and a freelance grant writer, journalist, and essayist. She has a passion for local history, and especially enjoys uncovering wonderful stories and characters that have been forgotten.

Kirst's work has appeared in the Columbus Senior Times magazine, Bend of River magazine, the Zanesville Times Recorder, Reminiscence, the Ada, Ohio, Herald, and the Lima, Ohio, News. She was a contributor to the New York State Encyclopedia project through the Syracuse University Press.

She lives with her family in Zanesville.
