Annual memberships will run one year from the official range opening date, as announced on our email lists and through our social media channels. Your fees are fully refundable only if the range fails to open, and partially refundable only if you do not pass the live fire qualification.

If you select the monthly payment option, you will be contacted to put your credit card on file, for automatic payment beginning in your fifth month of membership. A full year commitment is required for all monthly payment members.

We reserve the right to revoke range access without refund for members who fail to comply with our policies.

Please make checks out to XL Race Street Range LLC and mail with your application to
