Cabinet

13. Cabinet - [(1) There shall be a Cabinet of Ministers, comprising the Prime Minister of the Cook Islands (who shall preside over Cabinet) and not more than 6 other Ministers, which shall have the general direction and control of the executive government of the Cook Islands, and shall be collectively responsible to Parliament].

(2) The [Prime Minister] shall be appointed as follows:

- (a) If the appointment is to be made while [Parliament] is in session, the [Queen's Representative] shall appoint as [Prime Minister] a member of [Parliament] who commands the confidence of a majority of the members of [Parliament].
- (b) If the appointment is to be made while [Parliament] is not in session, the [Queen's Representative] shall appoint as [Prime Minister] a member of [Parliament] who in the opinion of the [Queen's Representative], acting in his discretion, is likely to command the confidence of a majority of the members of [Parliament].
- (c) If the appointment is to be made after a dissolution of [Parliament] and before the holding of a general election of [Parliament] following that dissolution, the [Queen's Representative] shall appoint as [Prime Minister] a person who was a member of [Parliament] immediately before that dissolution and who in the opinion of the [Queen's Representative], acting in his discretion, is likely to command the confidence of a majority of the persons who were members of [Parliament] immediately before that dissolution;

Provided that where [Parliament] has been dissolved pursuant to subclause (2) of Article 37 hereof, the [Queen's Representative] shall appoint as [Prime Minister] a person who was a member of [Parliament] immediately before that dissolution and who in the opinion of the [Queen's Representative] acting in his discretion, is capable of performing the functions of the [Prime Minister].

[(3) Five other Ministers other than the Prime Minister shall be appointed by the Queen's Representative on the advice of the Prime Minister. No person shall be so appointed under this subclause unless:

- (a) that person is a member of Parliament; or

- (b) if the appointment is to be made after a dissolution of Parliament and before the holding of the general election of Parliament following that dissolution, that person was a member of Parliament immediately before that dissolution; or
- (c) if the appointment is to be made after the holding of a general election of Parliament and before the commencement of the first session of Parliament following that election, that person was elected as a member of Parliament at that election.]

[(3A) One Minister, other than the Prime Minister, may in the discretion of the Prime Minister, be appointed by the Queen's Representative on the advice of the Prime Minister from persons other than those referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subclause (3) and who shall –

- (a) be qualified for election as a member of Parliament on and for the duration of his appointment; and
- (b) be entitled to attend and address meetings of Parliament and any committee thereof as if he were a member but shall not be entitled to vote on any question before Parliament.]

(4) Appointments under the provisions of this Article shall be made by instrument under the Seal of the Cook Islands.

(5) If any employee of the Cook Islands Public Service is appointed to be a Minister, he shall forthwith be deemed to have vacated his office as an employee of that Service.

14. Duration of office of members of Cabinet - [(1) The appointment of the Prime Minister who is in office immediately before the date of the holding of a general election of Parliament may be terminated by the Queen's Representative after the date of that election and before the date of the commencement of the first session of Parliament following that election if it appears to the Queen's Representative, acting in his discretion, that the Prime Minister is unlikely to command the confidence of a majority of the members of Parliament.]

(2) Repealed by section 2(b) of the Constitution Amendment (No. 15) Act 1993.

(3) The appointment of the [Prime Minister] shall also be terminated by the [Queen's Representative]:-

- (a) If the [Prime Minister] ceases to be a member of [Parliament] for any reason other than the dissolution of [Parliament]; or
- (b) If [Parliament] passes a motion in express words of no confidence in Cabinet or if Cabinet is defeated on any question or issue which the [Prime Minister] has declared to be a question or issue of confidence:

Provided that, if after the passing of such motion or after that defeat the [Prime Minister] so requests, the [Queen's Representative], acting in his discretion may dissolve [Parliament] instead of terminating the appointment of the [Prime Minister]; or

- (c) If the [Prime Minister] resigns his office by writing under his hand delivered to the [Queen's Representative]; or
- (d) If the [Prime Minister] is absent from the Cook Islands otherwise than on official business for a period of more than 3 months without written authority given by the [Queen's Representative], acting in his discretion.

[(4) The office of any other Minister shall become vacant:-

- (a) if the appointment of the Prime Minister has been terminated under the provisions of subclauses (1) or (3) of this Article; or
- (b) if the appointment of the Minister to that office is revoked by the Queen's Representative, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, by instrument under the Seal of the Cook Islands; or
- (c) if the Minister, being a member of Parliament, ceases to be a member of Parliament for any reason other than the dissolution of Parliament; or
- (d) if the Minister, not being a member of Parliament, ceases to be qualified for election as a member of Parliament; or
- (e) If the Minister resigns his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Queen's Representative.]

(5) Whenever, by reason of illness or of absence from the Cook Islands, the [Prime Minister] is temporarily prevented from performing, in the Cook Islands, the functions of his office, the [Queen's Representative] may, by instrument under the Seal of the Cook Islands, appoint another Minister to perform those functions until such time as the [Prime Minister] is capable of again performing them or has vacated his office.

(6) The power conferred on the [Queen's Representative] under the provisions of subclause (5) of this Article shall be exercised by the [Queen's Representative], acting in his discretion, if in his opinion it is impracticable to obtain the advice of the [Prime Minister] by reason of the illness or absence of the [Prime Minister], and, in any other case, shall be exercised by the [Queen's Representative], acting on the advice of the [Prime Minister].

(7) The [Queen's Representative], acting on the advice of the [Prime Minister], may, by instrument under the Seal of the Cook Islands:-

- (a) Declare a Minister to be by reason of illness temporarily incapable of performing his functions as a Minister; or
- (b) Suspend a Minister during the period of any investigation or inquiry into the conduct of that Minister.

(8) Any Minister in respect of whom action has been taken under the provisions of subclause (7) of this Article shall not perform any of the functions of his office or sit in or otherwise take part in the proceedings of Cabinet or of the Executive Council until the [Queen's Representative], acting on the advice of the [Prime Minister], has revoked the aforesaid instrument under the Seal of the Cook Islands.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Article, Parliament shall not be prorogued or dissolved before all electoral petitions filed in the High Court in respect of the last preceding general election of members have been finally determined [[by the High Court at first instance or have been withdrawn or dismissed for want of prosecution]].

[(5) The Queen's Representative shall dissolve Parliament at the expiration of 4 years from the date of the last preceding general election, if Parliament has not sooner been dissolved.]

(6) There shall be a general election of the members of Parliament at such a time within 3 months after every dissolution of Parliament as the [[Queen's Representative]] appoints by notice published in the Cook Islands Gazette.

[[ (7) (a) No Bill repealing or amending or modifying or extending subclause (5) of this Article or this subclause or making any provision inconsistent with any provision of the said subclause (5) or this subclause shall be deemed to have been passed by Parliament, unless -

- (i) At both the final vote thereon and the vote preceding that final vote it receives the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the total membership (including vacancies) of Parliament; and
- (ii) There is an interval of not less than 90 days between the date on which that final vote was taken and the date on which the preceding vote was taken; and

[[ (b) No such Bill shall be presented to the [Queen's Representative] for his assent, unless -

- (i) It has been passed by Parliament in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this subclause; and
- (ii) It has been submitted to a poll, conducted in a manner prescribed by law, of the persons who are entitled to vote as electors at a general election of members of Parliament; and
- (iii) It has been supported by not less than two thirds of the valid votes cast in such a poll; and
- (iv) It is accompanied by a certificate under the hand of the Speaker to that effect]].

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcls (1), (2), (3) (in two places) and (6) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

The words in square brackets were added to subcl.(4) by s.4(a) of the Constitution Amendment (No.11) Act 1982 (C.I.).

Subcl. (5), having been agreed to at a national referendum held on 7th September 2004, was substituted by section 2 of the Constitution Amendment (No. 27) Act and reduced the term of Parliament from 5 to 4 years.

Subcl.(7) was added by s.4(b) of the Constitution Amendment (No.11) Act 1982 (C.I.).

[38. Clerk of Parliament - (1) There shall be a Clerk of Parliament.

(2) The Clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of Parliament and shall transmit a copy of those records to the [[Queen's Representative]] as soon as possible.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcl.(2) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[39. Power to make laws - (1) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, Parliament may make laws (to be known as Acts) for the peace, order, and good government of the Cook Islands.

(2) The powers of Parliament shall extend to the making of laws having extra-territorial operation.

(3) Without limiting the generality of the power conferred by subclause (1) of this Article to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Cook Islands, that power shall, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, include the repeal or revocation or amendment or modification or extension, in relation to the Cook Islands, of any law in force in the Cook Islands.

(4) Except to the extent to which it is inconsistent with this Constitution, no Act and no provision of any Act shall be deemed to be invalid solely on the ground that it is inconsistent with any law in force in the Cook Islands.

[[5) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the power conferred on the Legislative Assembly of the Cook Islands by Article 39 of this Constitution (as originally enacted) to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the Cook Islands always conferred on that Assembly power to make laws notwithstanding anything in Article 46 of this Constitution (as originally enacted), declaring that any specified Act of the Parliament of New Zealand or any regulations, rules, or order under any Act of that Parliament should extend to the Cook Islands as part of the law of the Cook Islands]].

Subcl.(5) was added by s.7 of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[40. No property to be taken compulsorily without compensation - (1) No property shall be taken possession of compulsorily, and no right over or interest in any property shall be acquired compulsorily, except under the law, which itself or when read with any other law -

- (a) Requires the payment within a reasonable time of adequate compensation therefor; and
- (b) Gives to any person claiming that compensation, a right of access, for the determination of his interest in the property and the amount of compensation, to the High Court; and
- (c) Gives to any party to proceedings in the High Court relating to such a claim the same rights of appeal as are accorded generally to parties to civil proceedings in that Court sitting as a Court of original jurisdiction.

(2) Nothing in this Article shall be construed as affecting any general law,-

- (a) For the imposition or enforcement of any tax, rate or duty; or
- (b) For the imposition of penalties or forfeitures for breach of the law, whether under civil process or after conviction of an offence; or
- (c) Relating to leases, tenancies, mortgages, charges, bills of sale, or any other rights or obligations arising out of contracts; or
- (d) Relating to the vesting and administration of the property of persons adjudged bankrupt or otherwise declared insolvent, of infants or persons suffering under some physical or mental disability, of deceased persons, and of companies, other corporate bodies and unincorporated societies, in the course of being wound up; or
- (e) Relating to the execution of judgments or orders of Courts; or
- (f) Providing for the taking of possession of property which is in a dangerous state or is injurious to the health of human beings, plants, or animals; or
- (g) Relating to trusts and trustees; or
- (h) Relating to the limitation of actions; or
- (i) Relating to property vested in statutory corporations; or
- (j) Relating to the temporary taking of possession of property for the purposes of any examination, investigation, or inquiry; or

- (k) Providing for the carrying out of work on land for the purpose of soil conservation for the protection of water catchment areas].

[41. Power of Legislative Assembly to repeal or amend this Constitution - (1) Subject to the provisions of subclause (2) of this Article, no Bill repealing or amending or modifying or extending this Constitution or any provision thereof or making any provision inconsistent with any provision of this Constitution shall be deemed to have been passed by the Assembly, unless -

- (a) At both the final vote thereon and the vote preceding that final vote it receives the affirmative votes of not less than two-thirds of the total membership (including vacancies) of the [Parliament]; and
- (b) There is an interval of not less than 90 days between the date on which that final vote was taken and the date on which the preceding vote was taken;-

and no such Bill shall be presented to the [Queen's Representative] for assent unless it is accompanied by a certificate under the hand of the Speaker to that effect.

(2) No Bill repealing or amending or modifying or extending any of the provisions of sections 2 to 6 of the Cook Islands Constitution Act 1964 or Article 2 of this Constitution or this Article or making any provision inconsistent with any of those provisions shall be submitted to the [Queen's Representative] for his assent, unless -

- (a) It has been passed by the [Parliament] in accordance with the provisions of subclause (1) of this Article; and
- (b) It has been submitted to a poll, conducted in a manner prescribed by law, of the persons who are entitled to vote as electors at a general election of members of the [Parliament]; and
- (c) It has been supported by not less than two-thirds of the valid votes cast in such a poll; and
- (d) It is accompanied by a certificate under the hand of the Speaker to that effect.

The name of the Legislative Assembly of the Cook Islands was changed to the Parliament of the Cook Islands by s.5 of the Constitution Amendment (No.9) Act 1980-81, and the functions of that Assembly are now performed by Parliament.

The functions of the High Commissioner are now performed by the Queen's Representative pursuant to sections 2 and 4 of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[42. Introduction of Bills, etc, into Parliament - Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and of the Standing Orders of Parliament, any member of Parliament may introduce any Bill or propose any motion or debate in or present any petition to Parliament, and the same shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with the Standing Orders.

[43. Restrictions with regard to financial measures - Except upon the recommendation of the [[Queen's Representative]], Parliament shall not -

- (a) Proceed upon any Bill (including an amendment to a Bill) that, in the opinion of the person presiding, makes provision for any of the following purposes:
  - (i) For the imposition or alteration of taxation; or
  - (ii) For the imposition of any charge upon the Cook Islands Government Account or any other public fund or account or for the alteration of any such charge otherwise than by way of reduction; or

- (iii) For the payment, issue, or withdrawal from the Cook Islands Government Account or from any other public fund or account of any money not charged thereon or any increase in the amount of such a payment, issue, or withdrawal; or
- (iv) For the composition or remission of any debt due to the Crown.
- (b) Proceed upon any motion (including any amendment to a motion) the effect of which, in the opinion of the person presiding, would be to make provision for any of those purposes:
- (c) Receive any petition that, in the opinion of the person presiding, requests that provision be made for any of those purposes.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[44. Assent to Bills by [Queen's Representative] - (1) No Bill shall become law until it has been passed by Parliament and has been assented to by the [[Queen's Representative]].

(2) Whenever any Bill which has been passed by Parliament is presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for his assent, the [[Queen's Representative]] shall, acting on the advice of the [[Prime Minister]] declare that he assents to the Bill or that he refuses his assent to the Bill. Provided that the [[Queen's Representative]], acting in his discretion, may summon a meeting of the Executive Council, to be held within 14 days after the Bill is presented to him for his assent to consider amendments to the Bill proposed by him or to consider whether he should refuse his assent to the Bill.

(3) If at a meeting of the Executive Council thus summoned the Executive Council decides that the Bill should be returned to Parliament for consideration of the amendments proposed or, as the case may be, that the [[Queen's Representative]] should refuse his assent to the Bill, the [[Queen's Representative]] shall, by Message -

- (a) Return the Bill with the amendments proposed to Parliament for reconsideration by Parliament; or as the case may be,
- (b) Return the Bill to Parliament for reconsideration by Parliament.

(4) If at a meeting of the Executive Council thus summoned the Executive Council decides that the Bill should not be returned to Parliament for consideration of the amendments proposed or, as the case may be, that the [[Queen's Representative]] should not refuse his assent to the Bill, he shall declare that he assents to the Bill.

(5) Where any Bill is returned to Parliament under the provisions of paragraph (a) of subclause (3) of this Article, and the Bill is again passed by Parliament with the amendments proposed, but with no other amendments, or in the form in which it was originally presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for his assent, then, when the Bill is again presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for his assent, he shall declare that he assents to the Bill.

(6) Where any Bill is returned to Parliament under the provisions of paragraph (b) of subclause (3) of this Article, and the Bill is again passed by Parliament in the form in which it was originally presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for assent, he shall declare that he assents to the Bill.

(7) Where any Bill is returned to Parliament under the provisions of this Article and the Bill is again passed by Parliament with any amendments other than amendments proposed under the provisions of this Article, then, when the Bill is again presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for his assent, the foregoing provisions of this Article shall apply with respect to the Bill as if it had not previously been presented to the [[Queen's Representative]] for his assent.

(8) A Bill assented to by the [[Queen's Representative]] as herein provided shall be known as an Act of Parliament.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcls (1), (2) (in three places), (3) (in two places), (4), (5) (in two places), (6), (7) (in two places), and (8) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[45. Commencement of Acts - Every Act shall come into operation either on the day on which the Bill is assented to, or any other date (whether earlier or later than the date on which it is assented to) specified in that behalf in the Act, and different dates may be so specified in respect of different provisions of the Act.

[46. New Zealand Parliament not to legislate for the Cook Islands - Except as provided by Act of the Parliament of the Cook Islands, no Act, and no provision of any Act, of the Parliament of New Zealand passed after the commencement of this Article shall extend or be deemed to extend to the Cook Islands as part of the law of the Cook Islands.]

Part III was substituted for the original Part III (except Article 41) by s.5 of the Constitution Amendment (No.9) Act 1980-81 (C.I.). The original Article 41 was not repealed by that section, and continues in force.

As to the continuation in force of Acts of the Parliament of New Zealand that, pursuant to the original Article 46, were in force in the Cook Islands immediately before the date of the commencement of the Constitution Amendment (No.9) Act 1980-81 (C.I.) and of regulations made by the Governor-General in Council that, pursuant to the original Article 88, were in force immediately before that date, see s.22 of that Act, post.

[PART IV] [THE JUDICIARY]

[The High Court of the Cook Islands]

[47. High Court established - (1) There shall be a Court of record, to be called the High Court of the Cook Islands, for the administration of justice throughout those islands.

(2) Except as provided in this Constitution or by law, the High Court shall have all such jurisdiction (both civil jurisdiction, including jurisdiction in relation to land, and criminal jurisdiction) as may be necessary to administer the law in force in the Cook Islands.

(3) There shall be 3 Divisions of the High Court, namely -

(a) A Civil Division;

(b) A Criminal Division;

(c) A Land Division.

(4) A Judge of the High Court may exercise any of the jurisdiction and powers of a Judge of any Division.

(5) Nothing in this Article shall prevent a Judge of any Division from exercising any of the powers of a Judge of the High Court, whether or not in his capacity as a Judge of that Division.

(6) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Article and to Article 48 hereof, each Judge of the High Court, or any 2 or more Judges, may, in any part of the Cook Islands and at any time or place, exercise all the powers of the High Court.]

[48. Jurisdiction of Divisions of the High Court - (1) Each Division of the High Court shall hear and determine -

- (a) Such proceedings as are, under or by virtue of any enactment, to be heard and determined by that Division;
- (b) Such other proceedings as may from time to time be determined by the Chief Justice, either generally or in any particular proceedings or classes of proceedings.

(2) Subject to subclause (3) of this Article, the Land Division shall have all the jurisdiction and powers in relation to land that immediately before the commencement of this Article were conferred on the Land Court of the Cook Islands, and shall have such other jurisdiction as may be conferred on it by enactment.

[(3) Notwithstanding anything in this Part or in Part IVA, and in recognition of the customs and traditions of the people of those islands, the Land Division shall not exercise any jurisdiction or power in relation to land or chiefly titles in any of the islands of Mangaia, Mitiaro and Pukapuka, and such other islands as may be prescribed by Act, provided that no such Act shall be introduced to Parliament except with the consent of the Aronga Mana of the island to which it relates.]

[(4) Where on any island to which subclause (3) applies, jurisdiction or power in relation to any land or chiefly titles is exercised in accordance with the customs and usages of that island, the exercise of that jurisdiction or power shall be final and binding on all persons affected thereby and shall not be questioned in any Court of law.]

Subsection (3) was substituted by section 5 of the Constitution Amendment (No.17) Act 1994-95

Subsection (4) was added by section 5 of the Constitution Amendment (No.17) Act 1994-95

[49. Judges of the High Court - (1) The High Court shall consist of 1 or more Judges, each of whom shall be appointed under the provisions of this Constitution.

(2) If only 1 Judge is so appointed, he shall be the Chief Justice of the Cook Islands, but if more than 1 Judge is appointed, one of them shall be appointed as the Chief Justice of the Cook Islands.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a Judge of the High Court under this Article, unless -

- (a) He holds or has held office as a Judge of the High Court of New Zealand or of the Supreme Court of New Zealand or of the Court of Appeal of New Zealand or an equivalent office in any other part of the Commonwealth or in a designated country; or
- (b) He has been in practice as a barrister in New Zealand or in any other part of the Commonwealth or in a designated country, or partly in New Zealand and partly in any other part of the Commonwealth or in a designated country, for a period of, or periods amounting in the aggregate to, not less than 7 years.

(4) The [[Queen's Representative]], acting in his discretion, may declare to be a designated country for the purposes of this Article any country which in his opinion has a legal system similar to that existing in New Zealand.]

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcl.4 by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[50. Acting Chief Justice of the High Court - (1) Where any vacancy exists in the office of Chief Justice of the High Court or the Chief Justice of the High Court is absent from the Cook Islands, or is, by reason of illness or any cause other than absence from the Cook Islands, unable to perform the office or exercise any function of Chief Justice of the High Court, the senior other Judge of the High Court for the time being in the Cook Islands may perform that office or exercise that function until a Chief Justice of the High Court is appointed, or, as the case may be the Chief Justice of the High Court resumes that office or exercises that function.

[51. Acting Judge of the High Court - (1) The [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Chief Justice and the Minister of Justice, may appoint any person who is qualified for appointment as a Judge of the High Court to act as a Judge of the High Court, if there is no Judge of the High Court for the time being in the Cook Islands or, by reason of illness or other cause, there is no Judge of the High Court available to act.

(2) Any appointment made under this Article may be revoked at any time by the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Chief Justice.]

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcls (1) and (2) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

Appointment, Tenure of Office and Salaries of Judges

[52. Appointment of Judges - The Chief Justice and other Judges of the High Court shall be appointed as follows:-

- (a) The Chief Justice of the High Court shall be appointed by the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered by the Prime Minister.
- (b) The other Judges of the High Court shall be appointed by the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered by the Chief Justice of the High Court and the Minister of Justice.]

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in paras (a) and (b) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[53. Tenure of office of Judges - (1) Except in the case of an appointment made under subclause (2) of this Article, no person who has attained the age of 70 years shall be appointed to or continue to hold office as the Chief Justice or other Judge of the High Court.

(2) Any person of any age who does not reside in the Cook Islands and who is qualified for appointment may be appointed to hold office as the Chief Justice or other Judge of the High Court for a term of not more than 3 years, but may be reappointed for one or more further terms, being in each case a term of not more than 3 years.

(3) Nothing done by the Chief Justice or other Judge of the High Court in the performance of his functions shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only that he has reached the age at which he is required by this Article to retire or that his term has expired, as the case may be.

(4) The Chief Justice or any other Judge of the High Court may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the [[Queen's Representative]].

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcl.(4) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[54. Removal of Judge from office - (1) The Chief Justice or any other Judge of the High Court, other than a Judge appointed under the provisions of Article 51 hereof, may be removed from office by the [[Queen's Representative]] only for inability to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or from any other cause) or misbehaviour, and shall not be so removed unless the question of removal of the Chief Justice or other Judge from office has been referred to a tribunal appointed under subclause (2) of this Article and that tribunal has recommended that the Chief Justice or other Judge be removed from office for inability as aforesaid or misbehaviour.

(2) If the Prime Minister advises the [[Queen's Representative]] that the question of removing from office the Chief Justice or any other Judge of the High Court for inability as aforesaid or misbehaviour ought to be investigated, then -

- (a) The [[Queen's Representative]] shall appoint a tribunal consisting of a chairman and 2 other members; and
- (b) The tribunal shall inquire into the matter and report on the facts thereof to the [[Queen's Representative]] and recommend to the [[Queen's Representative]] whether or not the Chief Justice or other Judges should be removed from office; and
- (c) If the tribunal recommends that the Chief Justice or other Judge be so removed, the [[Queen's Representative]] shall, by warrant, revoke the appointment of the Chief Justice or other Judge, as the case may be.

(3) No person shall be qualified for appointment as a member of a tribunal under this Article unless he is qualified for appointment as a Judge of the High Court under Article 49 hereof.

(4) No business shall be transacted by a tribunal appointed under this Article unless all 3 members are present, and all questions proposed for decision by the tribunal shall be decided by the votes of a majority of those members.

(5) Subject to this Article, the tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

(6) If the question of removing from office the Chief Justice or any other Judge of the High Court has been referred to a tribunal under subclause (2) of this Article -

- (a) The [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, may suspend the Chief Justice or other Judge from performing the functions of his office for a period of 1 month;
- (b) If the decision of the tribunal has not been given before the expiration of that period, the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered to him by the Prime Minister, may suspend the Chief Justice or other Judge from performing the functions of his office for a further period of 1 month.

(7) Any such suspension may be at any time revoked by the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Prime Minister in the case of a suspension under paragraph (a) of subclause (6) of this Article and on the advice of the Executive Council in the case of a suspension under paragraph (b) of that subclause, and shall in any case cease to have effect if the tribunal -

- (a) Before the expiration of the total period of suspension, recommends to the [[Queen's Representative]] that the Chief Justice or other Judge be not removed from office; or
- (b) Does not, before the expiration of the total period of suspension, recommend to the [[Queen's Representative]] that the Chief Justice or other Judge be removed from office.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcls (1); (2) (in five places), (6) (in two places), and (7) (in three places) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[55. Salaries of Judges - (1) The salaries of the Chief Justice and other Judges of the High Court shall be determined by Act, and shall be charged on the Cook Islands Government account.

(2) The salaries of those Judges shall not be diminished during their period of office, unless as part of a general reduction of salaries applied proportionately to all persons whose salaries are determined by enactment.

Court of Appeal

[56. Court of Appeal established - (1) There shall be a Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands, which shall be a superior Court of record.

(2) Subject to Articles 57 and 58 hereof, the Judges of the Court of Appeal shall be -

- (a) A Judge of the Court of Appeal of New Zealand or a person who has held office as a Judge of that Court, or a Judge of the High Court of New Zealand, to be appointed by the [[Queen's Representative]] acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered to him by the Prime Minister; and
- (b) The Chief Justice and other Judges of the High Court; and
- (c) Such other persons, possessing the qualifications prescribed by subclause (3) of this Article, as may from time to time be appointed by the [[Queen's Representative]] acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered to him by the Prime Minister.

(3) No person shall be qualified for appointment as a Judge of the Court of Appeal under paragraph (c) of subclause (2) of this Article, unless he is qualified under Article 49 hereof to be appointed as a Judge of the High Court.

(4) The Judge of the Court of Appeal of New Zealand, or, as the case may be, the person who has held office as a Judge of that Court or the Judge of the High Court of New Zealand who is a member of the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands, shall be the President of the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands, but in his absence the Chief Justice of the High Court, if present, shall preside, but if the Chief Justice is also absent, the Judge present who is highest in seniority shall preside.

(5) Judges of the Court of Appeal shall take seniority according to the respective dates of their first appointment as Judges, whether of the High Court or of the Court of Appeal or of any Court in any place outside the Cook Islands.

(6) An appointment under paragraph (c) of subclause (2) of this Article shall be for a period of time or for the trial or hearing of one or more particular causes or matters, as may be specified in the instrument of appointment.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in paras (a) and (c) of subcl.(2) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981-82 (C.I.).

[57. Number of Judges - (1) Any 3 Judges of the Court of Appeal may exercise all the powers of the Court:

Provided that the Court may have its judgment delivered by any one of its members who is also a Judge of the High Court, and, if there is no such member, then through the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

(2) The judgment of the Court of Appeal shall be in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the Judges present.]

[58. Judges not to sit on appeals from own decision - A Judge of the Court of Appeal shall not sit on the hearing of an appeal from any decision made by him or by a Court on which he sat as a member.]

[59. Determination of Court of Appeal - (1) Except as provided in subclause (2) of this Article, the determination of the Court of Appeal shall be final, and there shall be no appeal to the High Court of New Zealand or to the Court of Appeal of New Zealand from any judgment of the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands.

(2) There shall be a right of appeal to Her Majesty the Queen in Council, with the leave of the Court of Appeal, or, if such leave is refused, with the leave of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, from judgments of the Court of Appeal in such cases and subject to such conditions as are prescribed by Act.]

[60. Jurisdiction of Court of Appeal- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Court of Appeal shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any appeal from a judgment of the High Court.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and except where under any Act a judgment of the High Court is declared to be final, an appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal from a judgment of the High Court -

- (a) As of right, if the High Court certifies that the case involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation or effect of any provision of this Constitution;
- (b) As of right, from any conviction by the High Court in the exercise of its criminal jurisdiction whereby the appellant has been sentenced to death or to imprisonment for life or for a term exceeding 6 months or to a fine of not less than $200 and from any such sentence (not being a sentence fixed by law);
- (c) As of right, when the matter in dispute on the appeal amounts to or is of the value of $400 or upwards;
- (d) As of right, from any judgment of the High Court involving any question as to the interpretation or application or effect of any provision of Part IVA of this Constitution.
- (e) With the leave of the High Court in any other case, if in the opinion of that Court the question involved in the appeal is one which by reason of its general or public importance, or of the magnitude of the interest affected, or for any other reason, ought to be submitted to the Court of Appeal for decision.

[(3) Notwithstanding anything in subclause (2) of this Article, and subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by Act, the Court of Appeal may in any case in which it thinks fit and at any time, grant special leave to appeal to that Court from any judgment of the High Court, subject to such conditions as to security for costs and otherwise as the Court of Appeal thinks fit.]

(4) In this Article the term "judgment" includes any judgment, decree, order, writ, declaration, conviction, sentence, or other determination.]

Subclause (3) of Article 60 was substituted by section 2 of the Constitution Amendment (No. 16) Act 1993-94.

[61. Transmission of order of Court of Appeal - The determination of the Court of Appeal on any appeal from the High Court shall be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court by the Registrar of the Court of Appeal under the seal of the Court of Appeal, and judgment shall thereupon be entered by the High Court in conformity with that determination, or such other proceedings by way of a new trial or otherwise shall be taken in the High Court as are required by that determination.

Justices of the Peace

[62. Justices of the Peace - (1) The [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Executive Council tendered to him by the Minister of Justice, may appoint Justices of the Peace for the Cook Islands, who shall hold office for such time as may be prescribed in their warrants of appointment and may be paid such remuneration as may be prescribed by enactment.

[(2) Every Justice of the Peace (whether appointed before or after the coming into force of this subclause) shall cease to act in a judicial capacity before becoming a candidate for election to Parliament, but such ceasing to act shall not otherwise affect that person's status as a Justice of the Peace.]

(3) An Act shall prescribe the jurisdiction and powers of Justices of the Peace appointed under this Article and for an appeal to lie to the High Court from a final judgment of a Justice of the Peace.

(4) A Justice of the Peace for the Cook Islands shall not be removed from office as such, except by the [[Queen's Representative]], acting on the advice of the Chief Justice.

(5) In [[subclause (3)]] of this Article the term "judgment" includes any judgment, decree, order, writ, declaration, conviction, sentence, or other determination.

Subclause (2) was inserted by section 6 of the Constitution Amendment (No. 17) Act 1994-95, which came into force on the 30th June 1995.

Oath of Allegiance and Judicial Oath

[63. Oath of Allegiance and Judicial Oath - (1) Every Judge of the Court of Appeal who is not a Judge of the Court of Appeal of New Zealand or of the High Court of New Zealand or a Judge of the High Court of the Cook Islands and every Justice of the Peace for the Cook Islands, shall, as soon as may be after his acceptance of office, take and subscribe before the [[Queen's Representative]] the following oaths:

(a) An Oath of Allegiance in the following form -

I,....., swear by Almighty God that I will be faithful and be true allegiance to Her (or His) Majesty [Specify the name of the reigning Sovereign as thus: Queen Elizabeth the Second], as the Head of State of the Cook Islands, Her (or His) heirs, and successors, in accordance with the Constitution and the law. So help me God:

(b) The Judicial Oath in the following form -

I,....., swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly serve Her (or His) Majesty (Specify as above) as the Head of State of the Cook Islands, Her (or His) heirs, and successors, in accordance with the Constitution and the law, in the office of.....; and I will do right to all manner of people, without fear or favour, affection or ill will. So help me God.

(2) If any person mentioned in this Article declines or neglects, when the oaths required to be taken by him under this Article are duly tendered, to take those oaths, he shall if he has already entered on his office vacate the same, and if he has not entered on the same be disqualified from entering on the same; but no person shall be compelled in respect of the same appointment to the same office to take any oath more than once:

Provided that no proceedings before any such person may be questioned in any Court solely on the ground that that person failed to take the oaths prescribed by this Article.

The words "Queen's Representative" were substituted for the words "High Commissioner" in subcl.(1) by s.4(1) of the Constitution Amendment (No.10) Act 1981 (C.I.).

Part IV was substituted for the original Part IV by s.7 of the Constitution Amendment (No.9) Act 1981-82.

[PART IVA FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS]

[64. Fundamental human rights and freedoms - (1) It is hereby recognised and declared that in the Cook Islands there exist, and shall continue to exist, without discrimination by reason of race, national origin, colour, religion, opinion, belief, or sex, the following fundamental human rights and freedoms:

- (a) The right of the individual to life, liberty, and security of the person, and the right not to be deprived thereof except in accordance with law;
- (b) The right of the individual to equality before the law and to the protection of the law;
- (c) The right of the individual to own property and the right not to be deprived thereof except in accordance with law:
Provided that nothing in this paragraph or in Article 40 of this Constitution shall be construed as limiting the power of Parliament to prohibit or restrict by Act the alienation of Native land (as defined in section 2(1) of the Cook Islands Act 1915 of the Parliament of New Zealand);
- (d) Freedom of thought, conscience, and religion;
- (e) Freedom of speech and expression;
- (f) Freedom of peaceful assembly and association.

(2) It is hereby recognised and declared that every person has duties to others, and accordingly is subject in the exercise of his rights and freedoms to such limitations as are imposed by any enactment or rule of law for the time being in force, for protecting the rights and freedoms of others or in the interests of public safety, order, or morals, the general welfare, or the security of the Cook Islands.

[65. Construction of law - (1) Subject to subclause (2) of this Article and to subclause (2) of Article 64 hereof, every enactment shall be so construed and applied as not to abrogate, abridge, or infringe or to authorise the abrogation, abridgement, or infringement of any of the rights or freedoms recognised and declared by subclause (1) of Article 64 hereof, and in particular no enactment shall be construed or applied so as to -

- (a) Authorise or effect the arbitrary detention, imprisonment, or exile of any person; or

- (b) Impose or authorise the imposition on any person of cruel and unusual treatment or punishment; or
- (c) Deprive any person who is arrested or detained -
  - (i) Of the right to be informed promptly of the act or omission for which he is arrested or detained, unless it is impracticable to do so or unless the reason for the arrest or detention is obvious in the circumstances; or
  - (ii) Of the right, wherever practicable to retain and instruct a barrister or solicitor without delay; or
  - (iii) Of the right to apply, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, for a writ of habeas corpus for the determination of the validity of his detention, and to be released if his detention is not lawful; or
- (d) Deprive any person of the right to a fair hearing, in accordance with the principles of fundamental justice, for the determination of his rights and obligations before any tribunal or authority having a duty to act judicially; or
- (e) Deprive any person charged with an offence of the right to be presumed innocent until he is proved guilty according to law in a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal; or
- (f) Deprive any person charged with an offence of the right to reasonable bail, except for just cause; or
- (g) Authorise the conviction of any person of any offence except for the breach of a law in force at the time of the act or omission; or
- (h) Authorise the imposition on any person convicted of any offence of a penalty heavier than that which might have been imposed under the law in force at the time of the commission of the offence.

(2) Every enactment, and every provision thereof shall be deemed remedial, whether its immediate purpose is to direct the doing of anything that the enacting authority deems to be for the public good, or to prevent or punish the doing of anything it deems contrary to the public good, and shall accordingly receive such fair, large, and liberal construction and interpretation as will best ensure the attainment [[of the object] of the enactment or provision thereof according to its true intent, meaning and spirit.

(3) In this Article the term "enactment" includes any Act of the Parliament of England or the Parliament of Great Britain or the Parliament of the United Kingdom, being an Act in force in the Cook Islands, and any regulation, rule, order, or other instrument made thereunder.

The words "of the object" were inserted in subcl.(2) by s.9 of the Constitution Amendment (No.10 ) Act 1981 (C.I.).

[66. Saving - Nothing in this Part of this Constitution shall limit or affect any right or freedom, not specified in this Part, that may exist in the Cook Islands at the commencement of this Part.]

Part IVA was inserted by s.8 of the Constitution Amendment (No.9) 1980-81 (C.I.).

PART IVB
CUSTOM

66A. Custom - (1) In addition to its powers to make laws pursuant to Article 39, Parliament may make laws recognising or giving effect to custom and usage.

(2) In exercising its powers pursuant to this Article, Parliament shall have particular regard to the customs, traditions, usages, and values of the indigenous people of the Cook Islands.

(3) Until such time as an Act otherwise provides, custom and usage shall have effect as part of the law of the Cook Islands, provided that this subclause shall not apply in respect of any custom, tradition, usage or value that is, and to the extent that it is, inconsistent with a provision of this Constitution or of any other enactment.

(4) For the purposes of this Constitution, the opinion of the Aronga Mana of the island or vaka to which a custom, tradition or value relates, as to matters relating to and concerning custom, tradition, usage or the existence, extent or application of custom, shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court of law.]

Part IVB was inserted by section 7 of the Constitution Amendment (No.17) Act 1994-95.

PART V
THE PUBLIC REVENUES OF THE COOK ISLANDS

67. Public Funds - There shall be a Cook Islands Government Account and such other public funds or accounts as may be provided by law.

68. Restriction on taxation - No taxation shall be imposed except by law.

69. Public revenue - All taxes and other revenues and money raised or received by the Government of the Cook Islands shall be paid into the Cook Islands Government Account unless required or permitted by law to be paid into any other public fund or account.

70. Revenue and expenditure of Cook Islands Government Account – [(1) All expenditure from the Cook Islands Government Account, or from any other public fund or account shall be in accordance with an Appropriation Act unless otherwise authorised or permitted by any other enactment.

(2) An appropriation provision for a specific purpose shall make reference to any anticipated income in relation to that purpose and the amount appropriated shall be the nett amount.

(3) The Minister responsible for Finance, with the concurrence of Cabinet, or, where any enactment so provides, the Executive Council, may approve the expenditure of such sums as he or it considers necessary -

(a) in anticipation of provision to be made in an Appropriation Act for any financial year:

Provided that the total amount issued and paid in any financial year shall not exceed the unexpended balance of the vote in the Appropriation Act (or Acts) for the preceding financial year together with an amount equal to three-twelfths of that vote; or

- (b) when during the period between the passing of the last Appropriation Act for any financial year and the end of that year it is desirable that money should be expended in excess of or without the prior appropriation of Parliament:

Provided that:

- (i) the total amount of all sums issued and paid shall not exceed a one and one-half percent (1 ½ %) of the total amount of all sums appropriated by the Appropriation Act or Acts for that year; and
- (ii) in such case the Public Expenditure Review Committee shall investigate and make a recommendation to the Minister of Finance who may direct that any amount paid to any Government Department or Crown Agency in accordance with paragraph (b) be repaid to the Cook Islands Government Account out of any appropriation in any following year.]

[(3A). The Audit Office shall, in the last Session of Parliament before the date on which a general election of Parliament is required to be held, forward to the Speaker for presentation to Parliament a separate report specifying any expenditure made in any financial year that is in excess of the limits prescribed by subclause (3) of this Article or by any other enactment and has not been reported in any report previously presented pursuant to this subclause, and Parliament may by Act validate the whole or any part of that expenditure.]

(4) A statement of the unauthorised expenditure for any financial year shall be included in the accounts for that year laid before Parliament.

(5) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Article, the collection, receipt, custody, banking, issue, expenditure, care, and management of money credited or to be credited to the Cook Islands Government Account or to any other public fund or account shall be as prescribed by enactment.

Subclauses (1), (2) and (3) were inserted by section 2 of the Constitution Amendment (No. 22) Act 1997.

Subcl.(3A) was inserted by s.9(1) of the Constitution Amendment(No.9) Act 1980-81

71. Audit - (1) The Audit Office of [the Cook Islands] shall be the auditor of the Cook Islands Government Account and of all other public funds or accounts, and of the accounts of all Departments and offices of executive government and of such other public, statutory, or local authorities or bodies as may be provided by law.

(2) The Audit Office shall, at least once annually, forward to the Speaker of [Parliament] for presentation to [Parliament] a report containing such information as is required to be submitted by any enactment, together with such other information relating to the Cook Islands Government Account or other funds or accounts which under this Constitution or under any other enactment are required to be audited by the Audit Office as that Office considers desirable.

(3) There shall be established by enactment a Public Expenditure Committee comprising a chairperson appointed by the Minister of Finance and other members whose numbers and manner of appointment shall be prescribed by Act.]

(4) The Act referred to in subclause (3) of this Article shall provide to the Public Expenditure Committee sufficient powers to investigate expenditure from the Cook Islands Government Account and other public funds or accounts of executive government and such other public statutory or local authorities or bodies as may be prescribed by law, and shall have such other functions, duties, powers, and responsibilities as shall be provided by enactment.]

Subclauses (3) and (4) were substituted by section 2 of the Constitution Amendment (No.18) Act 1995-96

PART VI THE COOK ISLANDS PUBLIC SERVICE

72. The Cook Islands Public Service – (1) There shall be a Cook Islands Public Service, which shall comprise such persons in the service of the Government of the Cook Islands as may from time to time be prescribed by law.

(2) An Act shall provide for the administration and regulation of the Cook Islands Public Service including without limitation, the appointment, terms of service, disciplinary control, termination of appointment, and dismissal of members of the Public Service, and different such provisions may be made in respect of different classes of members of the Public Service.

73. Public Service Commissioner - (1) There shall be a Public Service Commissioner appointed by the Queen's Representative on the advice of the Prime Minister.

(2) No person shall be appointed to be or to remain the Public Service Commissioner if he is or becomes a member of Parliament.

(3) The Public Service Commissioner shall not hold concurrently any other office in the Cook Islands Public Service.

(4) The actions of the Public Service Commissioner shall not be invalidated in consequence of the subsequent discovery of some defect with regard to his appointment.

(5) The Public Service Commissioner shall be paid such remuneration by way of salary and allowances as may from time to time be determined by Cabinet.

(6) The procedure to be followed by the Public Service Commissioner in the exercise of his functions, and the delegation of his powers and functions may be prescribed by enactment.

[74. Term of Office of the Public Service Commissioner - (1) The Public Service Commissioner shall be appointed for a term as shall be determined by Cabinet and may from time to time be re-appointed.

(2) The Public Service Commissioner may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Prime Minister.

(3) The Queen's Representative, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, may suspend or remove the Public Service Commissioner from office for disability, bankruptcy, neglect of duty, breach of the terms of his appointment, or misconduct.

(4) The Public Service Commissioner shall have such functions as are prescribed by Act.

75. Staff of Queen's Representative - (1) Except as provided in subclause (2) of this Article, the appointment, terms of service, disciplinary control, termination of appointment, and dismissal of staff of the Queen's Representative shall be matters for the Queen's Representative, acting in his discretion.

(2) The Queen's Representative, if he so desires, may appoint to his staff such employees of the Cook Islands Public Service as he may select, acting in his discretion but after consultation with the Prime Minister, from a list subjected by the Public Service Commissioner; and the provisions of subclause (1) of this Article (except so far as they relate to appointment) shall apply in relation to a person so appointed in respect of his service on the staff of the Queen's Representative but not in respect of his service as an employee of the Cook Islands Public Service.

Note: In the original Article 75(2), the word "submitted" was used instead of "subjected". It is suggested that "subjected" may be a typographical error.

76. Board of Appeal - (1) There shall be a Cook Islands Public Service Board of Appeal, which shall consist of -

- (a) The Chief Justice of the High Court;
- (b) One person, being an employee or former employee of the Cook Islands Public Service, to be appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the Queen's Representative, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister.
- (c) One person, being an employee or former employee of the Cook Islands Public Service, to be elected by the employees of that Service or nominated by an organisation of those employees, and to hold office for a period of 3 years.

(2) The Chief Justice shall be Chairman of the Board of Appeal.

(3) In the absence of the Chief Justice from any sitting of the Board of Appeal, any other Judge of the High Court nominated by him, either generally or in any particular case, may attend the sitting in his stead, and while so attending shall be Chairman of the Board of Appeal.

(4) In the absence of the Chief Justice or other Judge nominated pursuant to subclause (3), the person for the time being holding office as Ombudsman may attend the sitting in his stead and while so acting shall be Chairman of the Board of Appeal.

(5) An Act,-

- (a) shall prescribe whether or not the person to be appointed under the provisions of paragraph (c) of subclause (1) of this Article is to be elected or nominated and the manner of that election or nomination;
- (b) May provide for the appointment of deputies to act for members of the Board of Appeal appointed under the provisions of paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) of subclause (1) of this Article;
- (c) Shall prescribe the jurisdiction of the Board of Appeal to hear and determine appeals;
- (d) Shall prescribe the procedure of the Board of Appeal.

(6) Subject to the provisions of any Act, the Board of Appeal shall determine its own procedure.]

Part VI was inserted by section 8 of the Constitution Amendment (No. 17) Act 1994-95.

PART II
TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND CONSEQUENTIAL
REPEALS AND AMENDMENTS

17. The Parliament of the Cook Islands - (1) Notwithstanding the repeal and substitution by section 5 of this Act of Article 27 of the Constitution, and the enactment by that section of Article 28C of the Constitution -

- (a) Subclause (2) of Article 27 (as so substituted) and the said Article 28C shall not come into force until the date of the first general election of the Parliament of the Cook Islands held after the commencement of this Act, except so far and to such extent as may be necessary to provide for that election; and
- (b) Subclause (2) of Article 27 of the Constitution as originally enacted) shall continue in force until that date, as if for the words "Legislative Assembly" in the subclause there were substituted the word "Parliament", except so far and to such extent as may be necessary to provide for the said election.

(2) Every person holding office as a member of the Legislative Assembly immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, after the commencement of this Act, hold office as a Member of Parliament, subject to the provisions of the Constitution, and, unless he previously vacates office for any reason, shall continue to hold office as a Member of Parliament until the end of the day immediately preceding the day on which the members elected at the said election come into office.

(3) Every office of the Legislative Assembly shall, after the commencement of this Act, be an office of Parliament, and every person holding any such office immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue to hold office after the commencement of this Act.

(4) Every reference to the Legislative Assembly or to the Assembly in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act or in any instrument or document of any kind in force at the commencement of this Act, be read as a reference to the Parliament of the Cook Islands.

(5) Every reference to a Commissioner or to a Commissioner of the High Court in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act, or in any instrument or document of any kind whatever in force at the commencement of this Act shall after the commencement of this Act, be read as a reference to a Justice of the Peace of the Cook Islands.

(6) Every reference to the Judicial Service Commission in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act, or in any instrument or document of any kind whatever in force at the commencement of this Act shall, after the commencement of this Act, be read as a reference to the Minister responsible for Justice.

(7) Articles 84 and 85 of the Constitution are hereby repealed.

18. The Prime Minister - (1) The person holding office as Premier of the Cook Islands immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, after the commencement of this Act, without further appointment, hold the office of Prime Minister of the Cook Islands, subject to the provisions of Article 14 of the Constitution.

(2) Every reference to the Premier of the Cook Islands in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act is any instrument or document of any kind whatsoever in force at the commencement of this Act shall, after the commencement of this Act, be read as a reference to the Prime Minister of the Cook Islands.

19. The Land Court - (1) Every person holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act as a Judge of the Land Court of the Cook Islands shall, on and after the commencement of this Act, without further appointment, be deemed to be a Judge of the High Court as if he had been appointed as such under Article 52 of the Constitution, with seniority from the date on which he had been appointed a Judge of the Land Court.

(2) All judgments, decrees, records, and acts of the Land Court of the Cook Islands shall continue to have full force and effect on and after the commencement of this Act as judgments, decrees, records and acts of the High Court, and all proceedings pending in the Land Court immediately before the commencement of this Act may be continued in the High Court after the commencement of this Act.

(3) Where any final judgement of the Land Court of the Cook Islands has been given before the commencement of this Act, the right of appeal from that judgment shall be governed by the provisions of Article 60 of the Constitution as if that final judgment had been a final judgment of the High Court.

(4) Every reference to the Land Court of the Cook Islands or to a Judge of that Court in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act, or in any judgment, decree, order, record, or act of the Land Court, or in any other instrument or document whatsoever in force at the commencement of this Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires be read after the commencement of this Act as a reference to the High Court of the Cook Islands or, as the case may be, to a Judge of that Court.

20. The Land Appellate Court - (1) All judgments, decrees, records, and acts of the Land Appellate Court of the Cook Islands shall continue in full force and effect on and after the commencement of this Act as judgments, decrees, records, and acts of the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands, and all proceedings pending in the Land Appellate Court immediately before the commencement of this Act may be continued in the Court of Appeal after the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every reference to the Land Appellate Court of the Cook Islands or to a Judge of that Court in any other law in force at the commencement of this Act, or in any judgment, decree, order, record, or act of the Land Appellate Court, or in any other instrument or document whatsoever in force at the commencement of this Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read after the commencement of this Act as a reference to the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands or, as the case may be, to a Judge of that Court.

21. Appeal from High Court - (1) In any case in which immediately before the commencement of this Act an Appeal to the High Court of New Zealand from any judgement of the High Court of the Cook Islands was pending, that appeal may be continued after the commencement of this Act, and shall otherwise be heard and disposed of under the law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act as if that law had continued in force.

(2) The determination of the High Court of New Zealand on any appeal continued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court of the Cook Islands by the Registrar of the High Court of New Zealand under the seal of the High Court of New Zealand, and the High Court of the Cook Islands shall act in respect thereof as if it were a determination of the High Court of New Zealand transmitted under Article 62 of the Constitution, as in force before the commencement of this Act.

(3) Every provision in any Act conferring a right of appeal from a judgement of the High Court of New Zealand shall, after the commencement of this Act, be read as a provision conferring a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal of the Cook Islands.

22. Acts of New Zealand Parliament and regulations in the Cook Islands - (1) Every Act, and every provision of any Act, of the Parliament of New Zealand that pursuant to Article 46 of the Constitution (as in force before the commencement of this Act), was in force in the Cook Islands immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue in force in the Cook Islands after the commencement of this Act, but, subject to Article 41 of the Constitution, may be repealed, in relation to the Cook Islands, by Act of the Parliament of the Cook Islands.

(2) Regulations made by the Governor-General in Council pursuant to Article 88 of the Constitution (as in force before the commencement of this Act), and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force after the commencement of this Act, but may be revoked or amended, in relation to the Cook Islands, by Act of the Parliament of the Cook Islands.

23. Consequential repeals and amendments - (1) The following enactments are hereby repealed:
