5.7.30.8 EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND ADMINISTRATION:

- A. The board shall select and hire an executive director, based upon a demonstrated history of relevant skills and abilities, whose responsibility it shall be to perform such duties as may be delegated by the board, including but not necessarily limited to the direction and oversight of the day-to-day administration of the education trust fund.

B. The executive director shall have the authority to act in the areas delegated to the executive director by the board.

C. The executive director shall select and supervise staff and contractors or consultants appointed or retained by the board, and shall perform such other functions as may be necessary to supervise, direct, conduct and administer the day-to-day duties of the board as authorized by law or by rules and policies adopted by the board. [5.7.30.8 NMAC - Rp, 5.7.30.8 NMAC, 10/31/2017]

5.7.30.9 COLLEGE SAVINGS PROGRAM:

A. Account applications requirements:
(1) each applicant shall submit an application to the board or any agent or contractor designated by the board on such forms and with such attachments as the board may require;
(2) the application shall contain such information as the board may determine to be necessary or appropriate to evidence compliance with the federal requirements; and
(3) one person shall be designated as the beneficiary for each account.

B. College investment agreements:
(1) the board will enter into a college investment agreement with each account owner;
(2) the college investment agreement may include such information as the board may determine to be necessary or appropriate to evidence compliance with the federal requirements; and
(3) applications and college investment agreements may be submitted, accepted and become binding contracts by electronic means (including over the internet) as may be set forth in the program procedures and guidelines.

C. Participation in the college saving program is available to any individual or legal entity with a valid social security number or taxpayer identification number for the benefit of any individual with a valid social security number or tax identification number. Any contract entered into before the effective date of this regulation that does not allow for the use of taxpayer identification numbers must provide for the use of taxpayer identification numbers if renewed upon the expiration of the contract. Any new contract entered into after the effective date of this regulation must allow the use of taxpayer identification numbers.

D. Investment of account assets; limitations on contributions:
(1) no account owner or beneficiary may directly or indirectly direct the investment of any contributions or of any other amounts held in an account except as permitted under the federal requirements; however, at the time an account owner opens an account, an account owner may choose among any investment options offered by the board;
(2) contributions may be made at any time subject to any minimum deposit requirements established by the board; and
(3) total contributions to all accounts established under the college savings program which have the same beneficiary may not exceed the maximum amount as determined by the board in accordance with program procedures and guidelines and federal requirements.

E. Ownership of contributions and earnings; withdrawals:
(1) the account owner shall retain ownership and control of all contributions made to an account under any college investment agreement and earnings on those contributions while held in such account;
(2) only the account owner for each account may close an account and receive or direct a withdrawal of amounts contributed (and earnings);
(3) upon receipt of documentation required in accordance with program procedures and guidelines, the board will make distributions from an account as expressly directed by the account owner; and
(4) although the board will report the earnings portion of all withdrawals from an account, it will solely be the responsibility of the account owner to calculate, report and pay any resulting tax liability.

F. Fees and penalties:
(1) each college investment agreement may provide for payment to the board of an annual administrative fee based on amounts in the account accrued daily at an annualized rate or as otherwise calculated and at a level as determined by the board, and such fees may be used by the board only for costs permitted by the act; and
(2) customary and usual investment costs (including fees and expenses of any fund in which account assets are invested) and distribution costs approved by the board may be deducted from an account in connection with the investment thereof and are not included in the administrative fee, and any customary and usual account maintenance fees approved by the board may also be deducted from accounts.

G. Waiver of rule. The board may waive any requirements of this rule, except to the extent that the requirement is mandated by the act, in cases where the deviation from the rule is insubstantial and is not contrary to the purposes of the college savings program.
