SERVICE OF CELEBRATION AND GOSPEL RENEWAL
The Sundays of Pentecost—Ordinary Time
01 August 2021
Dear Cornerstone Family,

Can you believe it? It’s already August! I guess time (summer!) flies when you’re having fun.

Just as families are busily preparing to start back to school, we are busily preparing for the launch of our fall Sunday School ministry. Next week you’ll hear from our Children’s Coordinator, Meredith Suits, about all the plans for children’s Sunday School. Today, however, I want to encourage every Cornerstone adult to attend our important opening Sunday School series of the fall term.

The series is titled, The Lay of the Land: Reflecting on the PCA and the 2021 General Assembly. This class will teach you about the foundations and story of our denomination in light of the key business of this year’s General Assembly. Special attention will be given to the study committee on sexuality and the issue of same sex attraction. You will walk away from this class with a better understanding of the issues biblically and in light of the PCA’s history and distinctive. I hope to see you in the chapel during Sunday School on August 15th!

Before I wrap up, I have some great news to share with you. We hired a new Office Administrator at Cornerstone! Her name is Laura Sessions. Yes, some of you will recognize that last name. Laura is the wife of Rev. Richie Sessions, who is the campus minister with Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) at Vanderbilt.

Laura was born and raised in Jackson, MS. She graduated from Baylor University with a Bachelor of Business Administration with a particular emphasis in management of informational systems. While at Baylor, she met Richie, and they were married in 2000. After spending a few years in Cleveland, MS, and Memphis, TN, Laura moved to Franklin in 2015 when Richie accepted a call to be the Campus Minister at Vanderbilt.

Laura has served in a variety of administrative roles over the years. Most recently, she’s been an Administrative Assistant with RUF. She’s also volunteered her skills on a number of boards, serving as president and treasurer. For the last nineteen years, however, Laura’s primary work has been at home raising their three children: Mamie (19), Griffin (17), and Margaret (14).

If you would, whisper a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the provision of Laura. We are very excited to see how the Lord will use her in our midst. Also, pray for Laura! Pray her transition on staff will be smooth, and that the Lord will use her to help us accomplish our vision, “To glorify God in the gospel as disciples who make disciples.”

Your servant,

Elate
Worship is a response to the love of God that brings us out of darkness into his light. The rhythm and flow of the service reflects this present reality as God calls his people and reveals himself, forgives their sins, teaches them from his Word, the Bible, feeds them, and then sends them out to live what they have learned.

This is the pattern of his love in redeeming and saving his people.

Prelude, Announcements, and Preparation

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE AND REVEALS HIMSELF

God calls His people to worship and come before Him. The Creator of all things reveals Himself through His Word and calls us into His presence.

Introit—O For a Thousand Tongues, Vs I & 2

Call to Worship—from Psalm 116:12-19
Pastor: What shall we render to the LORD for all his benefits to us?
All: We will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD,
Pastor: We will pay our vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.
All: We will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.
Pastor: I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.
All: Praise the LORD!

Hymn of Praise—There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy

There’s a wide-ness in God’s mer-cy, Like the wide-ness of the sea;
There is wel-come for the sin-ner, And more grace for the good;
It is plen-ti-ful re-demp-tion In the blood that has been shed;
There is a kind-ness in His jus-tice, Which is more than lib-er-ty.
There is mer-cy with the Sav-iour; There is heal-ing in His blood.
'Tis our Fath-er: and His fond-ness Goes far out be-yond our dreams.
There is no place where earth's sorrows Are more felt than up in Heaven;
For the love of God is broad-er Than the mea-sure of our mind;
Souls of men! why will ye scat-ter Like a crowd of fright-en ed sheep?
There is no place where earth's fail - ings Have such kindly judg - ment given.
And the heart of the E ter-nal Is most won-der - ful-ly kind.
Fool - ish hearts! why will ye wan-der From a love so true and deep?
As the Sav - iour who would have us Come and gath-er at His feet?

New Testament Reading—2 Corinthians 4:1-6

Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God, we do not lose heart. But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God’s word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone’s conscience in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Elder: This is the Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

GOD CALLS HIS PEOPLE TO CONFESSION, REPENTANCE & RECONCILIATION

The People of God respond to His Word by confessing their sins, repenting of their sinful ways, and seeking God’s favor through the reconciling work of Jesus, the Son of God.

Sung Response—Lord, Have Mercy

Congregational Confession of Sin—based on Ephesians 4:17-24

Leader: Lord, we come confessing. You call us to not walk any longer as unbelievers do in the futility of their minds and in the darkness of their understanding.

All: Too often we are alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in us due to our hardness of heart.

Leader: We become callous and give ourselves up to sensuality—pleasing our own thoughts and desires and practicing every kind of impurity.

All: But this is not the way we learned Christ—having heard about him, being taught in him. For truth is in Jesus.

Leader: Give us your Spirit to continually put off the old self which belongs to our former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires.

All: May we be renewed in our minds and put on the new self, created after your likeness in true righteousness and holiness.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon—from Colossians 1:15-20

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.
Hymn of Praise—How Deep the Father’s Love For Us

How deep the Father’s love for us, How vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son To make a wretch His treasure.

I will not boast in anything: No gifts, no power, no wisdom. But shamed I hear my mock ing voice Call out among the scoffers. It great the pain of searing loss. The Father turns His face away As was my sin that held Him there Until it was accomplished; His should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer. But wounds which mar the Chosen One Bring many sons to glory.

dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.
this I know with all my heart: His wounds have paid my ransom.

The Reading of the Word—Mark 12:13-17

13 And they sent to him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to trap him in his talk. 14 And they came and said to him, “Teacher, we know that you are true and do not care about anyone’s opinion. For you are not swayed by appearances, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? Should we pay them, or should we not?” 15 But, knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, “Why put me to the test? Bring me a denarius and let me look at it.” 16 And they brought one. And he said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?” They said to him, “Caesar’s.” 17 Jesus said to them, “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they marveled at him.

Leader: The grass withers, the flower fades;
All: But the Word of our God will stand forever.

Sermon—Follow Me: The Gospel of Mark, pt 41

Render to God

—Nate Shurden, Pastor
Sung Response—Teach Me, O Lord, Thy Way of Truth, Vs I

Teach me, O Lord, Thy way of truth, And from it I will not depart; That I may steadfastly obey, Give me an understanding heart.

Text: Joseph P. Holbrook, ca. 1878; Music: TALLIS’ CANON, Thomas Tallis, ca. 1567.

Profession of Faith—The Apostles’ Creed

We believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived of the Holy Spirit,
    born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell. On the third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into Heaven and now sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* church,
The communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

* “Catholic” refers to the universal church of God’s people throughout all time and from all places
The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper

God offers to His people the gift of communion with Him through the grace of the sacrament and we respond in thanksgiving.

Words of Institution and the Lord’s Table

Guidelines for the Lord’s Supper

The Lord’s Supper is the family meal for Christians. We invite all baptized Christians who are members of a congregation that proclaims the gospel, and who are at peace with God and with their neighbor, and who seek strength to live more faithfully for Christ to join us.

If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, we encourage you to spend this time in prayer. You can find some sample prayers on the next page. We hope that this time is helpful to you as you consider your relationship with Jesus Christ and with His people, the church.

At Cornerstone, we come forward to receive communion. Proceed to the first table for the bread, and then on the second for wine/juice.
Psalm of the Month—Psalm 84: O Lord of Hosts

O Lord of Hosts, how lovingly Thy tabernacles are; For Beneath Thy care the sparrow Finds place for peaceful rest; To Blest they who dwell in Zion, Whose joy and strength Thou art; For them my heart is yearning In banishment afar. My keep her young in safety The swallow finds a nest; Then, ever they will praise Thee, Thy ways are in their heart. Though soul is longing, fainting, Thy sacred courts to see; My Lord, my King Almighty, Thy love will shelter me; Be tried, their tears like showers Shall fill the springs of peace, And heart and flesh are crying, O living God, for Thee. side Thy holy altar My dwelling place shall be. all the way to Zion Their strength shall still increase.

Prayers for Those Not Taking the Lord’s Supper

If you are not able to partake in the Lord’s Supper today, please use this time to meditate on one of the following prayers.

Prayer for Those Searching for Truth. Lord Jesus, you claim to be the way, the truth, and the life. Grant that I might be undaunted by the cost of following you as I consider the reasons for doing so. If what you claim is true, please guide me, teach me, and open me to the reality of who you are. Give me an understanding of you that is coherent, convincing, and that leads to the life you promise. Amen

Prayer of Belief. Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commitment. Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you in baptism and in a life of committed discipleship through membership in your church. Grant that I may take the necessary steps to be one with your people, and live in the fullness of your Spirit. Amen
Hymn of Communion—Deck Yourself My Soul With Gladness

Deck yourself, my soul, with gladness, Leave the gloomy haunts of sadness; Come into the daylight's splendor, There with measure; But the priceless gifts of heaven God to mercify! Oft have I, with sighs fast thronging, Thought upon bey You. By Your love I am invited, Be Your joy your praises rendered. Unto Christ Whose grace unbound-ed has freely given. Though the wealth of earth were offered, on this food with longing, In the battle well night worst-ed, love with love requited; From this supper let me measure, Has this wondrous banquet found-ed. Higher o'er Naught would buy the gifts here offered: Christ's true For this cup of life have thirst-ed, For the Lord, how vast and deep love's treasure. Through the all the heav'n's He reign-eth, Yet to dwell with you He deign-eth, body, for you riven, And His blood, for you once given. Friend Who here invites us And to God Himself unites us. gifts You here do give me As Your guest in heav'n receive me.

Text: Johann Franck, 1649; Tr. Catherine Winkworth, 1858; Music: SCHMUCKE DICH, Johann Cruger, 1598-1662.
Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Hymn of Praise—Glory be to God the Father

GOD SENDS HIS PEOPLE OUT TO BE LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

After calling His people into His presence, forgiving their sins, instructing them in His Word, and providing a foretaste of the marriage supper of the Lamb, God sends His people into the world to show His light in the darkness.

Benediction—2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word. Amen.

Sung Response—To You, O God, We Render Thanks, Vs 4

Text: Psalm 75; Music: ST, ANNE, William Croft, 1678-1727.

Missions Prayer Focus—Andrew Young is the church planting Minister of Oxford Evangelical Presbyterian Church, UK. This involves me preaching twice a week, leading regular Bible studies, speaking at evangelistic events, doing all the administration for the church, pastoring the church members, doing various forms of outreach, meeting for one-on-one Bible studies with young Christians, and serving in various capacities in the Presbytery of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of England and Wales.

Prayer Focus:
... that we would be able to resume morning in person services at St. Luke's Chapel soon. Our relationship with the University staff who run the booking system for the Chapel is very good and they are keen for us to resume use of it ASAP. However, they are waiting to see how the University will respond to the latest easing of lockdown measures. Our hope is that we will be able to re-start services there very soon.

... for further growth. We would love to see more students and local Oxonians come to hear the life-giving truth about Jesus Christ and to give their lives in love, faith and hope to his service and glory. Whilst we are so encouraged by the growth we have enjoyed, we are also due to ‘lose’ some key families and individuals as the Lord moves them on to other callings and places. Please pray for the Lord to make up for their absence, and to continue to establish the church here in Oxford.

... for a more permanent building. We are so thankful for both St. Luke's Chapel and the Friends Meeting House. Both are centrally located and have served us well to date. However, the need for our own more permanent (and larger) location is pressing. Covid has created unusual opportunities in UK city centres and we are pushing on a few promising doors. Please pray for the Lord to provide and to bless us with our own building.
Welcome to Cornerstone! If you are visiting with us today, we are glad you’re here and would love the opportunity to welcome you personally. We invite you to fill out the visitor card available in the pew in front of you. Please drop it in the offering boxes at either chapel entrance as you leave.

Sunday School
All Sunday School classes are on summer break. We will resume on August 15.
Taking the Message Home

Today’s message, “Render to God” is taken from Mark 12:13-17. Please take time to discuss the questions below with your family, friends, or Home Fellowship Group.

- The Pharisees and Herodians use deception and flattery to lay a trap for Jesus. How can one guard themselves against deception and flattery?
- Can you explain the dilemma posed by the question the Pharisees and Herodians asked, “Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?” (v.14)
- How does Jesus’s response, “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s” (v.17) escape the trap? What does His response teach us?
- Reflect on this: what is the difference between a self-rendered life and a God-rendered life?
- How did Jesus Christ fulfill the demand to give Caesar and God His due?
