

Student Code of Conduct

Purpose

To promote student safety in our school, the code of conduct aims to support, encourage and enable school staff, parents and children to understand, identify discuss and report student safety matters.

This code is based upon the following student rights:

- The right to feel secure and be safe.
- The right to be valued and treated with respect.
- The right to learn in a positive environment without interference.
- The right to develop one's talents, interest and abilities to the full.
- The right to have one's property respected.

This code has the following objectives:

- To promote consideration for rights of others
- To develop students self-discipline and self-control.
- To enable students to be on task with their learning
- To enhance self-esteem.
- To encourage responsibility and accountability for behaviour.
- To promote values of honesty, fairness, tolerance and respect for others.
- To promote rational conflict resolution.
- To promote an environment that supports child safety and protection from abuse.
