Student Code of Conduct

I, a student of Golden Gate Learning Center, agree to the following:

ROATS

I agree “respect others and their stuff” inside and outside of class. I will be punctual, alert, and fully participate in class. I will treat instructors, the hosting facility, fellow classmates and their belongings in a respectful and polite manner.

Homework

I will complete all homework assignments, reading, writing & memory work to the best of my ability and come to class ready to discuss the content with my questions and ideas.

Electronics

I will not use any electronic devices during class or between classes without special permission from both my parent & GGLC staff.

Dress Code

I agree to dress modestly, avoiding short shirts, short skirts, strapless, backless mid-drift tops, tank tops, cleavage, controversial slogans & logos, low pants, exposed undergarments, very tight, loose, or otherwise distracting clothing.

Discipline

Should I neglect to abide by this agreement, I will heed my warning. Should I repeat this behavior, I may not be admitted back into class temporarily or permanently.

Parent Agreement

I, a homeschool parent of a student of Golden Gate Learning Center, agree to the following:

Homeschool Parent as Teacher

I understand that as a homeschool parent, I am my child's teacher. I am fully responsible for my child's education and accept GGLC as a support to our private homeschool or independent study program.

Participation

I will participate in class as much as possible. At a minimum I promise to participate in the classroom at least one full day (preferably Thursday) each 6 to 8 week session. I will volunteer for lunch duty at least once per session as well and seek to connect with other Chronos families.

Homework

I will check the www.chronoscohorts.com blog weekly for homework assignments & suggested activities. I will review memory work with my student, assist him/her in completing all homework assignments, help him/her prepare an appropriate presentation of that material and be ready for class each day.

Absences

I will notify GGLC staff when my child is going to be absent. My student will not come to class within 24 hours of fever or vomiting or before the first treatment of lice.

Fees & Tuition

I agree to the fee structure below and will meet all payment deadlines. I am responsible for all fees and tuition even if I withdraw my child from GGLC before the session is complete.
