Group Dining and Private Events Booking Policies

To move forward with the booking process for either a group dining or private room reservation, please let the event coordinator know as soon as possible so they can recheck availability, tentatively hold the space for you and send the contract and credit card authorization form. Anytime a guest requests a custom menu or the party size necessitates a custom menu, a contract and credit card authorization form is also required. A reservation is confirmed once the event coordinator has received the completed forms.

Mizuna cannot hold any reservations without a signed event contract. We ask that you please provide us with a signed dining contract and menu selection form no later than one week prior to your event.

In the event of a cancellation, we ask for at least 48 hours' notice. If an event is cancelled within 48 hours of the agreed upon event date, the food and beverage minimum will be applied to the credit card on file.

Is there a fee or deposit required? We do not have a room rental charge or require a deposit for our private dining room. However, there is a food and beverage minimum that must be met prior to tax, the facilities fee and gratuity if you are reserving the room in full. If the party fails to hit the minimum with food and beverage revenue, Mizuna will total the bill to the minimum amount and then add the gratuity, facilities fee and tax.

Menu Selections - All events with more than 9 guests are asked to create a custom menu. The menu guidelines will help you in selecting the appropriate number of choices based on the current group/private dining menu. I am happy to help you with suggestions or make a menu that is suitable for your special event. We ask for finalized menu selection no later than one week prior to your event.

Beverages - All beverages are charged a la carte and on consumption. We request you make selections from our wine list in advance; if you would like assistance or suggestions, our sommelier will be happy to assist you. We have plenty of ways to customize beverage options- please ask!
