

OAHPERD 2016-2017

Todd Farmer – VP-Elect Physical Education Division

Todd is an Associate Professor at Langston University. He is currently serving as the Chair of the (HPER) Health and Physical Education Department of Langston University. Prior to serving as Chair, he was the Program Coordinator for the Physical Education/Health program at Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, Kentucky. Todd has taught health and physical education in public schools and is certified in 5 states to teach K-12 PE and Health. Todd has taught the last 13 years for Texas A & M International University in Laredo, Texas, Wayne State College in Wayne, Nebraska, and Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, Kentucky. Todd is also a nationally certified Adapted PE teacher and is certified by APEN's.

Todd earned his B.S. in Physical Education/Health at George Fox University in Newberg, Oregon and his Masters of Education at Linfield University in McMinnville, Oregon. He received his doctorate from the University of Phoenix in Educational Leadership with an emphasis in Physical Education. Todd is a member of SHAPE, NASPE, and the National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education. He has served previously on all AHPERD Boards in the states in which he has lived. He is new to Oklahoma (summer of 2015) and is excited to be part of the OAHPERD board.