

Softcore

Salon XXVIII

I am interested in ideas, not merely in visual products. I make reality of ideas as they come into my head. Between my head and my hand, there is always the face of death. I really believe a salon should be for everyone.

Manon La dame au crane rasé, 1977 Courtesy of the artist