Trial Date to be Announced During Case Management Conference in *Juliana v. United States

WHAT: Juliana v. United States case management conference with Magistrate Judge Thomas M. Coffin and lawyers representing all parties. The conference is open to the public.

The parties will update the Court on discovery and pretrial motion matters and Judge Coffin is also expected to set a 2018 trial date in accordance with Judge Aiken's calendar.

Note: Counsel for plaintiffs will be available for comment after the conference.

WHEN: Thursday, April 12, 10:00 am - 11:00 am PST.

WHERE: Wayne Lyman Morse United States Courthouse, Eugene, Oregon (map)
(between 6th and 8th Street and Mill and Ferry.)

WHO: Several of the Eugene-based plaintiffs and attorneys for all parties.

Juliana v. United States was brought by 21 young plaintiffs from across the US, and Earth Guardians, who argue that their constitutional and public trust rights are being violated by the government's creation of climate danger. The case is one of many related legal actions brought by youth in several states and countries, all supported by Our Children's Trust, seeking science-based action by governments to stabilize the climate system.

Counsel for Plaintiffs are Julia Olson, Esq. of Eugene, OR and Philip L. Gregory, Esq. of Gregory Law Group.

Our Children's Trust is a nonprofit organization, leading a coordinated global human rights and environmental justice campaign to implement enforceable science-based Climate Recovery Plans that will return atmospheric carbon dioxide concentrations to below 350 ppm by the year 2100. We elevate the voice of youth, those with most to lose in the climate crisis, to secure the legal right to a healthy atmosphere and stable climate on behalf of all present and future generations.*
