PART III

The following consist of duties and responsibilities required of the Louisiana Farm Bureau Queen. Please read carefully. As an acknowledgement of these duties and responsibilities, you and your parent or guardian must sign this form before entry will be accepted.

If I am selected to represent Louisiana Farm Bureau as Queen, I agree to the following:

1. I will reign until my successor is crowned.
2. I will represent Farm Bureau at major statewide commodity festivals and other events as contracted by the LFBF office.
3. I will participate in the 2019 LFBF convention activities, as directed by the Women's Leadership Committee.
4. I will not be eligible to compete in any other contests such as festivals, fairs, etc., during my reign.
5. I cannot serve as parish queen, and I must relinquish the parish crown to the first runner-up or alternate.
6. I will be provided a crown, scepter, mantel, and cape that is the property of Louisiana Farm Bureau and must be returned at the end of my reign.
7. Farm Bureau will provide me with standard business cards, stationary, and farm bureau lapel pins during my reign.
8. I hereby agree to maintain a code of behavior in accordance with standards set forth by Louisiana Farm Bureau, including in particular, but not limited to, the following terms delineated below. Failure to adhere to these standards shall result in the immediate revocation from the queens contest:
  - a. The Queen shall remain unmarried for the duration of her reign;
  - b. Should the Queen become pregnant during her reign, she agrees to immediately relinquish her title;
  - c. It will be unacceptable for the Queen to use any form of social media, whether personal or in the name of or representing Farm Bureau, in a manner that embarrasses or ridicules the Farm Bureau organization or reflects a negative image of the organization. Inappropriate pictures, language, or activities posted to any media outlet (Farm Bureau or personal) and made available for reading or viewing by any other person or the public are strictly prohibited and shall be grounds for dismissal from the contest;
  - e. The Queen agrees to wear appropriate and modest attire at all functions and activities at which she is representing Farm Bureau.
