To celebrate Marin Open Studios 25th Anniversary, we invited arts advocate, Renee Baldocchi to curate an online exhibition showcasing the diverse and striking talent in Marin. Renee has a unique perspective as a longtime arts advocate and founder of the San Francisco Fine Arts Museum's innovative Public Programs Department. She selected work that inspired her as she went through her day, an eclectic mixture of media, style, location, and background. It is with deep respect for Renee's commitment to the local Bay Area art scene along with her intuitive experienced eye that we chose her for this responsibility.

"An unforgettable dreamscape that fills me with a sense of awe of the ancient world. Abigail's work evokes joy, wonder, playfulness, and fantasy." -Renee Baldocchi

I also have a piece in the show at the MOS Gallery 325 Town Center, Corte Madera which will be up until May 13 and will be taking part in Marin Open Studios again this year.

Deborah Bertola

I am cleaning out my studio and have lots of old paintings that would be suitable to paint over. All sizes. Most without much impasto, but most are varnished, though usually just with “Retouch” varnish. Write me if you want to set up a time to come by my studio and check it out: deborah@dbertola.com; 415-279-5103
