WHY YOUTH HOMELESSNESS MATTERS

Who is homeless?

McKinney Vento Act defines homeless as: any child who does not have a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. This includes students who are:

- Living with a friend, relative, or other non-legal custodian;
- Staying in a motel, hotel, trailer park, or campground;
- Living in a shelter;
- Staying in substandard housing;
- Transitioning from juvenile justice programs or foster care; or
- Living somewhere not usually used for sleeping.

The law protects “unaccompanied youth,” or homeless children not living with a parent or guardian.

In 2013, 1 child in every 30 children experienced homelessness, that is 2.5 MILLION children in the U.S.

(U.S. Department of Education)

KENTUCKY ranked 50 as the WORST state for CHILD HOMELESSNESS, but ranked 20th For State Policy and Planning.

(National Center for Family Homelessness)

MORE THAN 1,725 children enrolled in Northern Kentucky Schools were considered homeless during the 2011-2012 school year.

(Cincinnati.com article – “No Home For These Students, But There's Still Hope”)

Children who experience homelessness are at a greater risk for:

- Mental health issues
  - 2 times more likely to have a learning disability
  - 3 times more likely to have an emotional behavior disability
- Illnesses
  - 2 times more likely to develop ear infections
  - 4 times more likely to develop asthma
  - 5 times more likely to experience abdominal distress
- Difficulty in school
  - Increased rates of truancy
  - Increased rates of failure
  - Increased rates of grade retention
  - Increased dropout rates

In 2013, 66,818 Kentucky children experienced homelessness.
Children’s Law Center (CLC) has received a grant to assist youth experiencing homelessness in the 3 Northern Kentucky Counties – Campbell, Boone, and Kenton. You have been identified as a member of the community that could have significant contact with youth experiencing homelessness or who are at risk for becoming homeless. Please contact Tiffany Smith at the Children’s Law Center for more information: 859-431-3313.
