ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

The Nashville School of the Arts is a specialty high school serving talented arts students from across the school district. Our safe, creative atmosphere serves to enhance our school-wide focus on integration of arts and academics, while internal programs further expand our students' horizons.

At NSA, we're about more than just the arts; our school is also becoming known for its strong academics. Our faculty and staff view each of our students as artists, scholars and individuals. We feature nine unique arts conservatories for which students may audition.
