ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

East Nashville Magnet School (formerly East Literature Magnet School) is a public combined middle and high school. Students enter through the MNPS lottery process similar to other magnet schools in Nashville, but it is the only public school in Nashville to serve grades 5-12.

East students participate in monthly school wide seminars and content seminars within instructional time. Students are coached on how to have highly intellectually, text-driven discussions with peers. The Paideia philosophy lends itself to the Tennessee State Standards movement.
