Open House/Title I Annual Meeting: A Parent's Right to Know

Thursday, August 24, 2017

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Minutes

Mrs. Hildateri Smith began our Open House/Annual Meeting at 5:30 p.m. in the cafeteria with a welcome to the families. She then introduced the faculty and staff of McGavock Elementary to the parents and families in attendance.

Mr. Russ King and Drew Clark from our Pencil Partner Donelson Church of Christ provided information about the monthly dinners the second Wednesday of every month from 5:00-6:00 p.m. They discussed their clothing assistance capabilities, and they also mentioned their dental program available to McGavock Elementary families which could include cleanings, fillings, and extractions.

Mr. Justin Willis from our Pencil Partner Wilson Bank & Trust introduced the banking program available to students in which students can deposit money into their WB&T savings accounts every other Thursday at school beginning August 31, 2017.

Ms. Xaviera Washington, the school secretary, presented information about the SMART Card fundraiser currently in progress. Cards may be purchased through the end of August. Information was shared about school-wide field trips.

Ms. Erin Kirby informed parents of the YMCA's after-school program at McGavock Elementary.

Mr. Josh Wright then conducted the annual Title I/ESSA meeting with the parents. He presented information about:

- Title I
- Parents Rights to Know
  - Student progress, School status, Safe school
- Parent Compact and Parent Involvement Policy
- Funds and Expenditures
- School-wide or Targeted Assistance
- Dates of Events

Materials pertinent to the presentation and upcoming school events were distributed to interested families.

Families were then dismissed to the classrooms of their children's teachers to meet and gather more information about the activities and learning occurring in each room. If families had children in more than one classroom, they had enough time allotted to visit each classroom.

The meeting concluded at 7:00 p.m.
