School Attire Prohibitions

- Outerwear such as raincoats and cold-weather jackets, may not be worn in the school. These items should be stored in the student’s locker until the end of the school day.
- Torn/ripped clothing is prohibited.
- No see-through clothing is to be worn, no midriffs showing.
- Logos and manufacturer's trademarks with writing or images of substances that are illegal for teens (i.e. drugs, alcohol and tobacco products) or are otherwise offensive, lewd, indecent, vulgar, obscene, profane, and gang-related, or constitute racial or ethnic slurs may not be worn.
- Tattoos that display drugs, alcohol or tobacco products, or gang- or sex-related words or images must not be seen at any time.
- Chains, spiked accessories and belt buckles with concealed weapons are not permissible. Belts may not hang down as a “tail” from the belt loop.
- Blankets may not be carried around the building or used as a covering in class.
- Head coverings (unless for religious reasons or with administrative approval) such as bandanas, scarves, sweatbands, baseball-style caps, do-rags, berets, hats, or hairnets are not to be worn or seen during school hours.
- Hoodies may be worn, but at no time are the hoods permitted to be on the student's head while in the building.

There will be opportunities for students to wear more casual attire; however, the prohibited guidelines will always be in place.

Standard School Attire issues are always decided at the discretion of the school’s administration.
